TAR HEELS RETURN 18 STARTERS, 43 LETTERMEN

A year ago, North Carolina entered the season with more than 50 players who had never taken a college snap. Many of those players got a chance to play last season and will lean on that experience as they head into 2008.

The Tar Heels welcome back 43 lettermen this season, including 23 defensive lettermen, 19 offensive lettermen and one special teams letterman. Carolina has nine returning starters on offense, including all-star candidates Hakeem Nicks and Brandon Tate at wide receiver, Garrett Reynolds at offensive tackle and T.J. Yates at quarterback. Versatile sophomore Greg Little returns at tailback after starting the final two games in 2007.

Defensively, Carolina returns eight starters, including freshman All-Americas Deunta Williams at safety, Marvin Austin at defensive tackle and Quan Sturdivant at linebacker. Punter Terrence Brown is back at punter.

"One of the most important parts of developing this program is getting players to take ownership of it," says head coach Butch Davis. "We want our older guys to develop leadership so they can take over position groups and we want them to look after young guys and make sure they're doing the right things not just on football field but in the classroom and in the community. There is evidence that is starting to take place."

QUARTERBACK PLAY

One of the storylines this fall will be the return of sophomore quarterback T.J. Yates, who missed spring practice after undergoing surgery on his right (throwing) shoulder December 17. Yates set a single-season school record in 2007 with 2,655 passing yards, the fourth-highest total in ACC history for a first-year player. Late in the season, he began to experience some minor shoulder pain. An MRI following the Duke game revealed a small tear that required surgery. Yates is expected to be at full strength for fall practice in August.

"T.J. got off to such a great start last year," says Davis. "His efficiency and yards and touchdowns were outstanding. He struggled at the end of the season and looking back, it probably had something to do with the shoulder injury. With the receivers we have, he has an opportunity to bounce back and have another great season. We've only scratched the surface with what our quarterbacks can do. A whole new offense is a lot for them to learn. We ask a lot of them mentally. The longer they are in this offense the more productive they will be."

Junior Cameron Sexton and redshirt freshman Mike Paulus split the snaps this spring in Yates' absence and both were impressive in the Spring Game. Paulus started and completed 11 of 16 attempts for 159 yards, and Sexton was 7 of 9 for 104 yards.

Sexton played in seven games and started five as a freshman in 2006. He completed 57 of 136 attempts for 840 yards and four touchdowns. Last season, he played in just one game and completed his only attempt. Paulus, a highly recruited quarterback from Syracuse, N.Y., redshirted in 2007. Charlotte native Braden Hanson joins the team this season as a true freshman.

WHAT CAROLINA RETURNS IN 2008

Carolina returns several familiar faces in 2008, particularly on offense. In fact, the Tar Heels return all of their production at quarterback, 99.5 percent of their output at running back and 98.6 percent of their receiving yards. The only statistical loss on offense was wide receiver Joe Dailey who had two receptions for 38 yards and one rush for five yards.

As a group, Carolina's wide receivers may be as good as any in the conference. Hakeem Nicks, Brooks Foster and Brandon Tate combined for 128 receptions for 1,854 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2007.

Category	Percent Returning

Sacks	47.1 (16 of 34)
Interceptions	91.0 (10 of 11)

DEFENSIVE LINE AGAIN A STRENGTH

Despite the loss of NFL draft picks Hilee Taylor and Kentwan Bolmer, Carolina's strength on defense should be among the front four. Carolina has a solid nucleus including Marvin Austin, Cam Thomas, E.J. Wilson and Aleric Mullins, all of whom have logged significant playing time. Meanwhile, players like Tavares Brown, Darius Powell, Dorrius Massenburg, Greg Elleby and Tydreke Powell have potential, but just need experience.

"I told those guys the first day, `Not to put any pressure on you, but we'll go as far as you guys go,'" first-year coordinator Everett Withers says of the defensive front. "I honestly believe that's how you win games, you win them up front. If you have guys who are roaring and snorting every snap, they make it easy on the back end. I'm impressed with the talent and the job coach [John] Blake has done with those guys. We just need to keep recruiting well and developing depth.”

Wilson started every game at defensive end in 2007 and posted 44 tackles, including 9.5 tackles for losses and 5.0 sacks, which ranked second on the team. Mullins, Austin and Brown all started at least two games a year ago.

POSITION CHANGES

A handful of Carolina players have made position changes since the end of the 2007 season, including the team's leading rusher, Johnny White, who moved to cornerback. White started eight games in 2007 at tailback, gaining a team-high 399 yards on 95 carries. Freshman Greg Little moved into the starting tailback role for the final two games of the season and rushed for 243 yards and two touchdowns.

Ryan Taylor, a standout on special teams and a tight end/h-back a year ago, has converted to linebacker.

Late in spring practice Davis decided to move former tight end Vince Jacobs to defensive end. Initially, the swap was just on a trial basis, as Davis wanted to see Jacobs work in individual drills. But after the rising sophomore beat a pair of offensive linemen for a sack, it became a permanent switch. It paid off in the spring scrimmage, as on one play Jacobs' speed enabled him to run down a tailback for a loss from the back side. He also combined with Tydreke Powell for another tackle for loss and forced a fumble.

Others making position changes include Cooter Arnold from CB to WR, Anthony Parker-Boyd from DB to WR and Aaron Stahl from OG to C.

NICKS MOVES UP RECORD CHART

Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks enters 2008 as an All-America candidate with several Carolina career records within reach. A second-team All-ACC pick last year, Nicks set the single-season school record with 74 receptions for 958 yards and five touchdowns. He enters 2008 just 64 receptions shy of Carolina's career mark of 177. He also is 829 yards shy of the career mark of 2,447 set by Corey Holliday (1989-93).

Over the last two seasons, Nicks has 113 receptions, which is more than ACC career record holder Desmond Clark of Wake Forest (85) had at this stage of his career.

Nicks is second among active ACC players in receptions and fourth in receiving yards with 1,618.

TATE SEEKS NCAA CAREER RECORD

In just three seasons, Brandon Tate set an ACC career record for kickoff return yardage with 2,383 yards. The previous record of 2,313 was held by UNC's Eric Blount (1988-91). A senior from Burlington, N.C., Tate enters the season as the nation's active career leader in return yardage and tied with Indiana's Marcus Thigpen as the active career leader for kickoff returns for touchdowns (3).

Tate is on pace to break the NCAA record for career kickoff return yardage held by Jeff Liggon of Tulane, who had 2,922 yards from 1993-96 (123 returns).

Tate also blossomed into one of the ACC's top big play receivers last season and led the Tar Heels with 19.2 yards per catch (25 for 479) and five touchdowns. He led the ACC in all-purpose yards with 147.1 per game.

REYNOLDS HEADLINES OFFENSIVE LINE

Senior tackle Garrett Reynolds headlines North Carolina's massive offensive line. At 6-7, 310 pounds, Reynolds is an imposing force on the right side of the line. He has started 19 career games and should contend for all-conference honors with another standout season. Davis says Reynolds is one of the best offensive linemen he has coached.

Senior guard Calvin Darity (6-3, 310), junior tackle Kyle Jolly (6-6, 300), who missed the spring with a foot injury, and guard/center Aaron Stahl (6-2, 290) also return as starters.

This spring, Davis experimented by moving Stahl to center. A versatile player, Stahl is probably the Tar Heels' quickest lineman. His move opens the door to competition from senior Bryon Bishop (6-3, 300) and sophomore Alan Pelc (6-6, 325) for the final starting spot.

"The interior of the offensive line is not 100 percent settled," says Davis. "At left guard, Bryon Bishop played very well and had his most productive spring. He's being challenged by Alan Pelc. We would have liked to see if Kevin Bryant (6-7, 350) could challenge them but he missed the spring with a wrist injury. With Jolly out, we discovered that Carl Gaskins is a very good young prospect at the left tackle position. We still have some areas where we need to establish some good quality depth. We need to have 7-8 guys who can go in and play."

WITHERS ADDED TO COACHING STAFF

Carolina's only offseason coaching change was the addition of Everett Withers as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Withers replaced Chuck Pagano, who left to become a Baltimore Ravens assistant coach. Withers joined the Tar Heels just after signing day and coached his new team this spring.

"Everett's transition into this staff has been as seamless as any staff addition I've been around," says Davis. "He's a great person and a good man. He comes in with a great knowledge defensively of how to coach. Immediately he was a big hit with our players. We're very fortunate. He's a charismatic recruiter and outstanding secondary coach. We hit a home run by hiring him to this staff."

Withers came to North Carolina after serving one season as the University of Minnesota's defensive coordinator in 2007. He also has coached on the college level at Texas with former Tar Heel coach Mack Brown, Louisville, Southern Miss, Tulane and Austin Peay.

Prior to working at Minnesota, Withers spent six seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2001-06 under head coach Jeff Fisher. He helped the Titans defense tally 57 interceptions, which was the most for the franchise over a three-year period since 1993-95. Withers also worked for the NFL's New Orleans Saints earlier in his career.

Withers earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He was also a standout defensive back and captain for the Mountaineers from 1981-85.

PLACE-KICKER BATTLE

One of the position battles to watch this fall is at place-kicker, where the Tar Heels are looking to replace four-year starter and career field goal leader Connor Barth. Redshirt freshman Jay Wooten is expected to step in for Barth, but will face competition from a number of walk-on players, including Barth's brother, Casey, a freshman from Wilmington.

LITTLE RETURNS AT RUNNING BACK

Carolina returns all four of its leading rushers from 2007, including sophomore Greg Little. A native of Durham, N.C. Little started the final two games last season and rushed for 243 yards, including 154 yards and two touchdowns in an overtime victory vs. Duke.

Following the season, Little joined the basketball team as a walk on and stayed with the team through the ACC Tournament. He returned in time for football's spring practice.

Little enters the season as the starter, but will face challenges from sophomore Ryan Houston and redshirt freshman Devon Ramsay. Johnny White, last year's starting running back in eight games, has moved to cornerback.

2008 TICKET SALES SET RECORD

North Carolina sold a school-record 36,250 season tickets for the seven-game home slate in 2008. Carolina's schedule is highlighted by visits from Virginia Tech, Notre Dame and NC State. The highest previous season ticket total was 34,800 in 1998, the year after the Tar Heels finished 11-1 and were ranked No. 4 in the country.

"Our fans have been great," says head coach Butch Davis. "We had a fantastic gameday atmosphere last year. Our fans and their vocal support make a tremendous impact on our players and recruits."

Last season, Carolina sold out five of its six home games, averaged 57,417 fans – the most in more than a decade. Average attendance was up nearly 18 percent from the previous season.

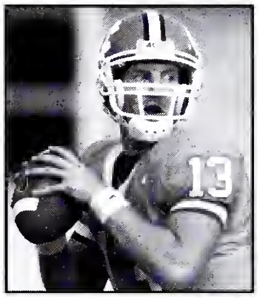
RECORD-SETTING YATES LOOKS TO IMPROVE

By Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com



When he looks back at his freshman season, T.J. Yates doesn't see the school single-season record for passing yardage (2,655) or the UNC freshman records for completions (218).

He sees mistakes. Lots and lots of mistakes.

"This is just a bad mental mistake," he says as he watches his first interception of the year, which came against James Madison in the season opener. "I thought Hakeem was running a completely different route than what he was actually running. I just threw it to the wrong guy.

"That's the kind of thing that can be so easily fixed, and it must be fixed because it leads to interceptions and turnovers. Looking back at how many of our problems were caused by things like that, it can make you really mad."

It's hard to get too mad about one of the finest seasons ever for a Carolina quarterback. At a school where the passing heritage is not especially rich, his 60 percent completion rate and 14 touchdowns should have qualified Yates for a statue. Instead, he spends more time thinking about the 18 interceptions than the 14 touchdowns.

That's primarily because of the way the season ended, with two failed two-minute offense opportunities at NC State and Georgia Tech and a narrow overtime win over Duke in which Yates first began to feel pain in his right shoulder.

"Before the Duke game, I knew I didn't have the normal zip on the ball," he says. "But I thought I was just fatigued from all the throwing during the season. But against Duke, it was kind of a cold day, and I never felt like I could get warmed up. At that point I thought something might be wrong, because I felt some pain in my shoulder."

Yates completed just 11-of-24 passes for 75 yards in that game in an offense that had been drastically scaled down by coordinator John Shoop in order to protect the quarterback. And Yates's intuition proved correct when he was diagnosed with tissue trauma in his shoulder joint.

The injury required a substantial 14-phase rehab process that forced Yates to the sidelines during spring practice, where Shoop could often be heard barking, "Look here, T.J., these guys are getting better!" as backups Cameron Sexton and Mike Paulus went through their on-field repetitions.

To compensate for the lack of field action—he didn't begin throwing until mid-April—Yates found other ways to improve.

"Coach Shoop always says that if one of your senses is gone, you have to make the other ones keener," Yates says. "I couldn't do some of the physical throwing, but I could do things like work on my footwork and get in the film room.

"That's how I'm going to get better. I'm trying to learn more football every day, and by doing that it makes playing the game more natural. And that's how you eliminate some of those silly mistakes."

night game on ESPN highlight North Carolina's 2008 football schedule.

Carolina plays host to seven home games for just the second time in the last 14 years. The Tar Heels begin the season on Aug. 30 vs. McNeese State and also face non-conference home games against Connecticut (Oct. 4) and Notre Dame (Oct. 11). The Fighting Irish are visiting Chapel Hill for just the sixth time overall and the first time since 1975.

The Tar Heels' ACC home slate includes games against defending ACC champion Virginia Tech (Sept. 20), Boston College (Oct. 25), Georgia Tech (Nov. 8) and NC State (Nov. 22).

In the second game of the season, Carolina will play at Rutgers on Thursday, Sept. 11, in a nationally-televised game on ESPN. It marks Carolina's first appearance on an ESPN Thursday night game since the 2006 season against Virginia.

Carolina's road schedule is highlighted by Davis' return to Miami (Sept. 27), where he coached for six seasons and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record. Davis and the Tar Heels beat Miami, 33-27, last year at Kenan Stadium. UNC's last win at Miami came in 1957.

Carolina's other road games are at Virginia (Oct. 18), at Maryland (Nov. 15) and at Duke (Nov. 29).

BALMER GOES IN FIRST ROUND OF NFL DRAFT

Defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer was selected with the 29th overall pick in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft. He became the 17th overall first-round selection in North Carolina history and the first since Julius Peppers and Ryan Sims in 2002. Balmer had a career year under the tutelage of head coach Butch Davis and defensive line coach John Blake. He finished with 59 tackles and 9.5 tackles for losses.

"In the next half dozen years we will be the kind of program where Kentwan Balmer set the standard and we have 6-12 kids drafted every year," says Davis, who runs an NFL-style program. "The more players you get drafted, the more high profile recruits want to come. It will definitely pay dividends in the future."

ACC & NFL DRAFT

Over the past two years, 82 ACC players have been drafted in the National Football League, the most by any conference in the nation. During the same time period the ACC has had more first round selections in the NFL Draft with 18.

2008 UNIFORMS

North Carolina will unveil new Nike uniforms in 2008. The jersey has an updated design and includes a bigger nameplate with a wide font. The uniform is made of new performance fabrics, producing a tight, shrink-wrapped fit. Both the jersey and pants are significantly lighter in weight and are produced with fabrics that hold far less moisture. Lightweight mesh is added in areas traditionally covered by non-breathable fabrics. (in the upper back, neck and under arms where heat can escape). A Carolina Blue stripe on the side of the home (white) pants extends from the waist to the middle of the thigh.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL

Gameday at Kenan Stadium

- Kenan Stadium, set amidst tall pine trees in the middle of the UNC campus, has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927.

- Thousands of fans cheer on the team each week at the traditional Old Well Walk. Carolina players arrive at the Old Well approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff and walk to the entrance of Kenan Stadium.

- Located in the West end zone, the "Tar Pit" is a centralized student-only seating area that was successful in helping create a home-field advantage for the Tar Heels in 2007. Carolina students filled the area well before kickoff and wore special "Tar Pit" t-shirts for each home game.

- North Carolina sold a school-record 35,500 season tickets for the seven-game home slate in 2008.

- Tar Heel Town is the ultimate gameday experience for all Carolina fans. This popular outdoor festival of food, music and family-oriented activities opens two and a half hours prior to each home game. Tar Heel Town is located on Polk Place, just a short walk from Kenan Stadium.

Tar Heel Football Facilities

• The Tar Heels enjoy some of the nation's finest facilities. The Frank H. Kenan Football Center overlooks the field from the west end of the stadium. The facility includes coaches' offices, a UNC football museum, and areas for players to study, train, rehab and relax.

• "With all the pine trees surrounding Kenan Stadium, this is a picture-postcard setting any time of the year."
– ESPN analyst Mel Kiper Jr.

Kenan Stadium Master Plan

• "Many people acknowledge that Kenan Stadium and its surrounding woods create the most beautiful setting for college football in America. This Master Plan, with all the improvements, will actually make the stadium even more beautiful than it is today."

Dick Baddour
Athletic Director
University of North Carolina

• Preliminary architectural renderings of the expansion of Kenan Stadium were presented to the UNC Board of Trustees in March and again in July. These renderings are preliminary, are subject to final approval of the Board of Trustees and will continue to evolve throughout the approval process.

• Construction on the West end zone project will begin following the 2008 season. The South and North side projects will begin after the 2009 season.

Kenan Stadium Master Plan

- A 40,000 square foot academic center, which will serve all Carolina student-athletes, will be constructed on the North side of Kenan Stadium.

- Plans include dramatic upgrades to the landscaping around Kenan Stadium. Those plans include a revamped entrance to the North and South sides of the stadium, the planting of several thousand trees in the Kenan Stadium grounds, and the construction of stone walls that tie into the overall design of campus. The outer gates will incorporate arches similar to the base of the Bell Tower.

Academic Excellence

- In each of the last five years, UNC has been honored by the American Football Coaches Association for graduating at least 70 percent of its football student-athletes.

- Tar Heel football players benefit from UNC's outstanding Academic Support Program. The program assists student-athletes in exploring their interests and abilities, enjoying a broad educational experience, and reaching or exceeding their academic goals. The staff includes academic counselors and learning specialists devoted to working with the football team.

- The program is housed primarily in the Pope Academic Support Center, which is equipped with study facilities, tutorial rooms, a computer lab, a 128-seat auditorium, counselors' offices, and state-of-the-art video and computer equipment.

At the center, students meet with staff to discuss course selection, major and career exploration, academic progress and academic eligibility.

Academic Support Program Staff

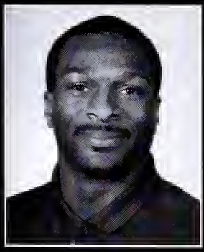
The Academic Support Program consists of a staff of 13 and serves nearly 800 UNC student-athletes. Below are six who work directly with the Carolina football program.

Robert Mercer

Director of the Academic Support Program

Robert Mercer has directed the Academic Support Program since 2002 and has been part of the department since 1996. He came to UNC in 1994 as an area director in the school's housing office.

A 1989 graduate of Winthrop with a degree in political science and social sciences, Mercer earned a master's degree in industrial education and human resource development from Clemson in 1991.



Octavus Barnes

Academic Counselor

Octavus Barnes joined the UNC staff in 2005 and serves as an academic counselor, working primarily with the football team.

He graduated from Carolina in 1997 with a double major in sociology and African-American studies. As a Tar Heel football player, he set several school records. He went on to play two years in the NFL and participated in Super Bowl XXXIII with Atlanta.

Beth Bridger

Learning Specialist

Beth Bridger joined the UNC staff in the summer of 2006 and is the learning specialist for the football team. Prior to coming to Carolina, she served as an academic advisor at James Madison University.

Bridger graduated from East Carolina in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in special education and earned a master's in sport administration from Louisville in 2005. At ECU, she was a four-year letterwinner for the softball team.

Cynthia Reynolds

Assoc. Director, Academic Support Program

Cynthia Reynolds serves as the academic coordinator for the Tar Heel football team. She came to Carolina in 2002 after working as the Assistant Athletic Director for Student Services at Tulane following stints at Cornell, Michigan and SUNY-Buffalo.

Reynolds graduated from Northern Iowa with a bachelor's degree in psychology and sociology and earned a master's degree in college counseling and student personnel administration from SUNY-Buffalo.

Jaimie Lee

Academic Counselor

Jaimie Lee joined the Academic Support Program in the summer of 2007 as an academic counselor for football.

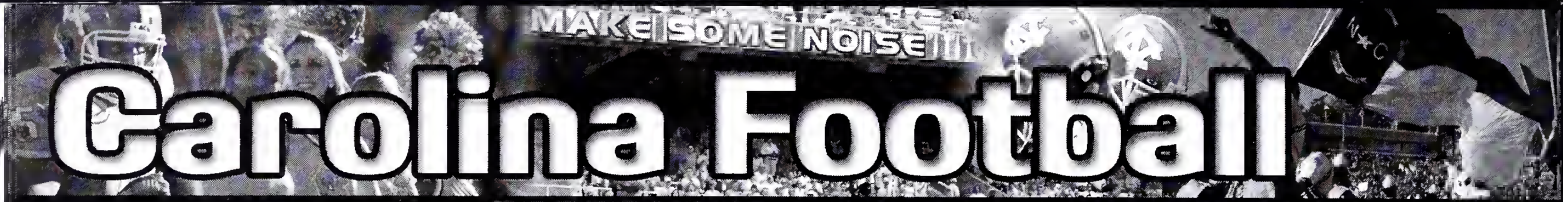
A 2004 cum laude graduate of Emory, she earned a B.A. in French studies and music. After graduation, she was a Mellon Fellow and graduate assistant, traveling to Senegal, Ghana and South Africa. She also taught in France.

Mary Willingham

Learning Specialist

Mary Willingham has been a part of the Academic Support Program since 2003. She works with the football team in addition to other Tar Heel squads.

Before coming to UNC, Willingham taught at Chapel Hill High School, East Chapel Hill High School and The Hill Center. She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Loyola and a master's in liberal studies from UNC Greensboro.



Carolina Leadership Academy

• As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world class leaders in athletics, academics and life.

• The Carolina Leadership Academy provides comprehensive and cutting-edge leadership development programming through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources.

• Among past winners of the Three-Dimensional Leader Award, the CLA's highest honor, are football players Jason Brown, Darian Durant and Ronnie McGill.

Developing World-Class Leaders for a Lifetime of Service and Success

Senior Mark Paschal i one of seven football players selected to participate in the CLA Veteran Leaders program 2008-09.

The Carolina Leadership Academy consists of three programs:

CREED Program

Leadership training begins in the freshman year. All leadership begins with personal leadership, therefore freshmen are taught skills to effectively lead themselves. Training consists of monthly meetings featuring keynote speakers and small group discussion. Upperclass student-athletes serve as peer mentors and discussion leaders. Special focus is on responsibility, accountability, making good choices, ethics and character building.

Rising Stars Program

Designed for a select group of "high potential" sophomores and juniors, the program provides future leaders with insights, strategies and skills necessary to become effective leaders. The program includes monthly meetings, interactive exercises and action learning experiences.

Veteran Leaders Program

This program is designed for team captains and veteran student-athletes. It provides advanced leadership training and support, teaches the critical skills and insights necessary to be effective vocal leaders and provides a strong peer network. Student-athletes meet regularly to learn and reinforce leadership principles and share successes, frustrations and lessons.

Carolina CREED

As a University of North Carolina student-athlete, I pledge to make every effort to abide by the Carolina CREED as a show of my commitment to the University, the Department Athletics, my team and myself.

C - I will know and embrace the tradition and CULTURE of this great Universit and its athletics department

R - I will RESPECT myself and others

E - I will pursue EXCELLENCE in my academic work by striving to reach my academic potential while preparing for a career of significance

E - I will EXCEL athletically by committing myself to performance excellence, team success and continual improvement

D - I will DEVELOP the capacity to effectively lead myself and others

Strength and Conditioning

• North Carolina's players benefit from a comprehensive program designed to keep them in peak physical condition. The Tar Heels conduct their strength training at a newly renovated weight room within Kenan Football Center. Jeff Connors, Assistant Athletic Director for Strength and Conditioning, administers the program, assisted by Brannon Simpson, Nate Barnes and Kerry Harbor.

The Tar Heels make use of modern strength, flexibility and conditioning methods in a year-round training cycle, the result of which is a suberbly conditioned team.

• Several current players set weight room records for their positions during the offseason.

Junior Kennedy Tinsley holds the UNC linebacker record in the power clean at 360 pounds.

Redshirt freshman Jay Wooten holds the UNC placekicker record in the vertical jump (35"), long jump (9'-7.5") and 40-yard dash (4.67).

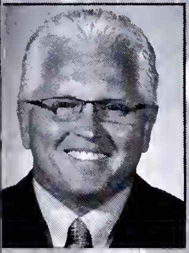
Carolina Strength and Conditioning Staff



Jeff Connors

Assistant A.D., Strength and Conditioning

Jeff Connors is in his eighth year as Carolina's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and his seventh as an Assistant Athletic Director. While his primary focus is the football team's strength and conditioning, Connors oversees the department's entire strength and conditioning program.

A graduate of Salem College, Connors headed programs at East Carolina and Bucknell before coming to UNC.

In 2003, he was honored as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa).

Nate Barnes

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Nate Barnes joined the UNC staff in 2008 following three years at East Carolina, the first two as a graduate assistant coach and the third as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. In Greenville, he worked with the 2006 football team and was directly responsible for training the ECU baseball team.

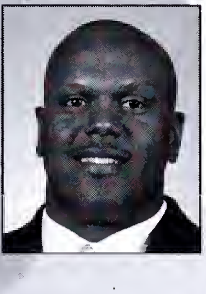
A member of the Pirates football team from 2000-03, Barnes earned two degrees from ECU. In 2003, he earned a degree in exercise and sports science/health and fitness and in 2004, he received a master's in exercise and sports science/sports administration.

Brannon Simpson

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Brannon Simpson returned to North Carolina as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004. He previously worked as a graduate assistant strength coach at Carolina. Simpson originally came to Carolina after working with head strength coach Jeff Connors at East Carolina in 2000.

A native of Eastman, Ga., Simpson was the head strength coach and defensive line coach at Middle Georgia Junior College from 1998-2000. He is a 1997 graduate of Carson-Newman, where he played noseguard for the Eagles.



Kerry Harbor

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Kerry Harbor joined the UNC staff in 2007 after a year as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at North Carolina A&T. He previously worked at UNC as a graduate assistant strength coach from 1999-2000. He was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Illinois from 2000-04 and held assistant football coaching positions at West Brunswick High School in Shallotte, N.C. (2004-05), and Ronald Reagan High School (2005-06) in Winston-Salem, N.C.

Harbor earned his bachelor's degree from North Carolina Central University in 1997.

Strength and Conditioning Honors

In year-round workouts, UNC football players are scored from one to 10 on various strength and conditioning exercises that are standard to their respective positions. Those with the highest scores earn the honor of Super Ram, followed by Elite Ram and Iron Ram The most recent results are from the 2007-08 winter conditioning program

Super Ram: Cooter Arnold, Bruce Carter, Brooks Foster, Zack Pianalto, Chase Rice, Aaron Stahl, Kennedy Tinsley, Deunta Williams, E.J. Wilson

Elite Ram: Shaun Draughn, Lowell Dyer, Jordan Hemby, Mark Paschal, Ryan Taylor, Brian White, Johnny White

Sports Medicine

- Tar Heel student-athletes are cared for by some of the nation's top sports medicine professionals. Physicians and athletic trainers provide a comprehensive system of care designed to prevent injuries and successfully rehabilitate any that might occur.

- Student-athletes at Carolina are fortunate to have access to the services provided by the UNC Sports Medicine Research Lab. Directed by Dr. Kevin Guskiewicz and Dr. Darin Padua, the Research Lab specializes in sport-related performance testing.

Football student-athletes undergo tests to measure not only their baseline neurocognitive function, but also functional biomechanical analysis. The information gained from these tests is used to better determine a student-athletes' readiness to return to competition following injury as well as to customize training programs to prevent such injuries.

The Sports Medicine Research lab is a valuable tool in applying scientific data to improve our student-athletes' performance and healthcare.

UNC quarterback T.J. Yates has his form analyzed at the Sports Medicine Research Lab.

Tar Heels' Hard Hits Help Researchers Learn About Injurie

Technology worn in UNC players' helmets is helping researchers learn more about head injuries and could lead to better guidelines for evaluating a player's status for future competition. Using a system known as HITS (Head Impact Telemetry System), researchers were able to measure the amount of force players' heads experienced during tackles and also the directional force of the hits, as well as noting where on the head the impact occurred.

By viewing video shot during the study, the research has already been able to avoid further injury. After a player in the study sustained two concussions, coaches viewed the video and determined that the player was not using proper technique. After training, he was able to make equally hard hits without sustaining injury.

Kevin Guskiewicz is the chair of the Department of Exercise and Sport Science and senior author on the paper, reported in the December 2007 issue of Neurosurgery. Guskiewicz was assisted by graduate student Jason Mihalik.

The data for the study, funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention through a grant at UNC's injury Prevention Research Center, was collected from 88 Carolina football players from fall 2004 through spring 2006.

Sports Medicine

Dr. Tim Taft

Director of Sports Medicine and Orthopaedic Surgeon

Dr. Tim Taft is the team's orthopaedic surgeon and the Director of Sports Medicine at UNC.

A native of St. Louis, Taft received his A.B. degree from Princeton University in 1964 and his M.D. from the University of Missouri in 1969. He completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Carolina in 1974.

Taft holds one of only two endowed professorships in sports medicine in the United States, the Max Novich Distinguished Professor of Sports Medicine chair. He is the president of the Council of Delegates for the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine.

Dr. Mario Ciocca

Head Team Physician

Dr. Mario Ciocca is in his 11th season as a team physician at UNC and serves as the head team physician for the football program.

Ciocca earned a B.S. in biochemical engineering from Columbia University in 1989 and then received his MD in 1993 from New Jersey Medical School. He completed his residency in internal medicine at UNC in 1996 and completed a sports medicine fellowship at UNC in 1998.

Ciocca is board certified in internal medicine and has a certificate of added qualification in sports medicine.

Dr. Dan Hooker

Associate Director of Sports Medicine

Dan Hooker has been on the Carolina athletic training staff since 1972. In addition to his work with the football team, Hooker coordinates athletic training and physical therapy at Carolina. He has held that position since 1984.

In 2002, the National Athletic Trainers Association named Hooker the nation's Most Outstanding Athletic Trainer.

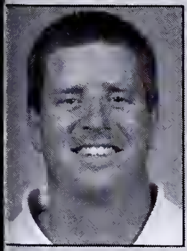
Hooker earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical therapy from the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond in 1967. He also received a Master of Science degree in secondary education from the University of Southern California in 1971 and Ph.D in education from Carolina in 1981.

Scott Trulock

Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Scott Trulock is in his second season with the Tar Heels as the head athletic trainer for football. He came to UNC in 2007 after spending 11 years in the NFL with Denver, Tampa Bay, San Diego and Philadelphia.

Trulock did his undergraduate work at Valdosta State and earned a master's degree from North Carolina.



Doug Halverson

Assistant Athletic Trainer for Football

Doug Halverson is in his fourth year as a staff athletic trainer at UNC and his second working with the football team. After earning his undergraduate degree from UNC in 2002, Halverson served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, working mainly with the Tar Heel football and tennis programs. He received a master's in exercise and sport science-athletic training in 2004.

He returned to UNC in 2005 after working as an assistant athletic trainer for Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Kevin King

Assistant Athletic Trainer for Football

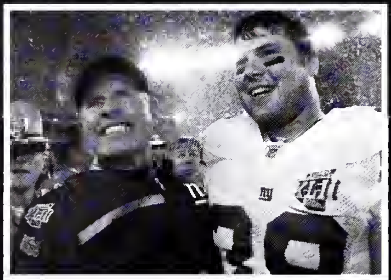
Kevin King is in his second year as a staff athletic trainer at UNC. He is a 2000 graduate of East Carolina and earned a master's in education from Connecticut in 2003. Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, King gained three years of ACC football experience and also served as a sports medicine intern with professional football and baseball teams including the Cleveland Browns, New York Giants, Pittsburgh Pirates and San Diego Padres.

Jen Ketterly

Director of Sports Nutrition

In her fourth year as a member of the UNC Sports Medicine staff, Jen Ketterly oversees the sports nutrition needs for UNC's 28 varsity sports including nutrition education, counseling, training tables, body composition analysis, and supplement evaluation. In her role with the football team, she works with the athletic training and strength and conditioning staffs to help players meet their individual health and performance goals.

A graduate of Cornell University, she earned a master's in clinical nutrition from the University of Kentucky. Ketterly is also the registered dietitian for the UNC based Center for the Study of Retired Athletes, which studies the health of retired NFL players.



Tar Heels in the NFL

- North Carolina ranked 10th in the Wall Street Journal's Dow Jones College Football Success Index, a ranking of how successful a program is at producing NFL players.

- North Carolina ranked 12th in the country last year with 27 former Tar Heels on active NFL rosters on opening day.

- Butch Davis and six of his assistants have significant NFL coaching experience.

- Madison Hedgecock (above) and Russell Davis represented the Tar Heels in Super Bowl XLII as members of the New York Giants. Hedgecock caught a pass and was the lead blocker on a fourth-and-one play as his team beat the Patroits.

> "Every place I've ever coached, we've always emphasized that we're going to have a pro-style football program, one that's going to showcase kids' talents, that's going to give them the opportunity to play schemes that if they perform and play the way we expect them to play, the NFL is certainly going to recognize that."

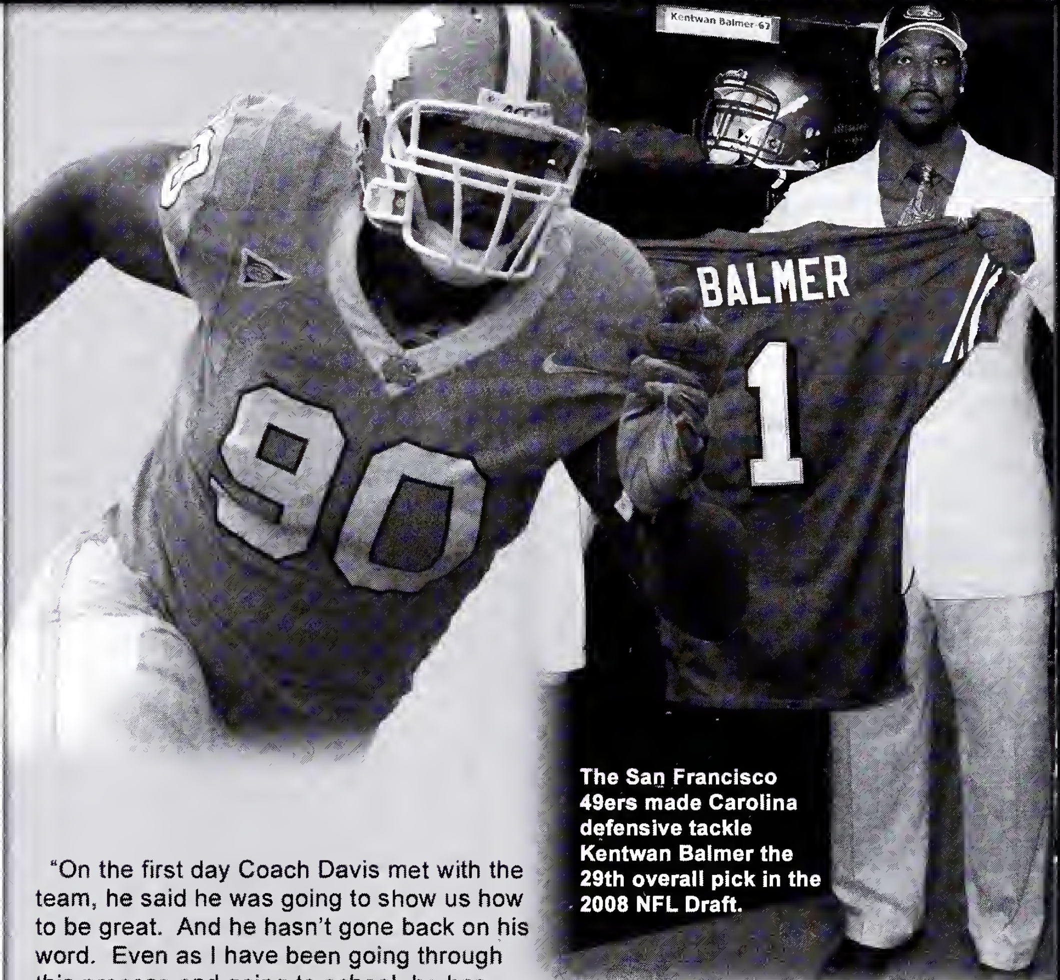
Living the Dream

• As the 29th pick in the 2008 NFL Draft, UNC's Kentwan Balmer became the 17th first-round draft pick in school history and the first since Julius Peppers (second overall) and Ryan Sims (sixth overall) in 2002.

Balmer is the 29th first-round pick Butch Davis has coached or recruited during his career as a college head coach.

• "In the next half dozen years we will be the kind of program where Kentwan Balmer set the standard and we have 6-12 kids drafted every year," Butch Davis says. "The more players you get drafted, the more high profile recruits want to come. It will pay dividends in the future."



The San Francisco 49ers made Carolina defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer the 29th overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

"On the first day Coach Davis met with the team, he said he was going to show us how to be great. And he hasn't gone back on his word. Even as I have been going through this process and going to school, he has been with me every step of the way. It has just been a blessing to have him as a head coach.

"Coach Davis and Coach Blake brought a professional approach to the game. They taught me what it takes in terms of mental preparation to play at the highest level. I owe it all to them for helping me reach my goal of playing in the NFL."

– Kentwan Balmer

"I was ecstatic for Kentwan. I know how important it was to him and his family to b a first-round draft choice. It's great for our program because it's a testimony that whe someone does what he did last year, the sky is the limit. He did everything a coaching staff could ask an athlete to do. He was a leader, he prepared and he played great on game days."

Success After Football

- Tar Heel student-athletes go on to successful careers in a wide variety of fields, some immediately following graduation and some after playing in the NFL.

- UNC offers outstanding resources to help students prepare for the future. At University Career Services, open to all Carolina students, experienced and accessible counselors assist undergraduates in exploring majors and career fields, networking with UNC alumni, presenting themselves well in resumes and interviews, and much more.

- The mission of the Career Development program, part of the Student-Athlete Development program at UNC, is to prepare each Tar Heel student-athlete for a fulfilling career following graduation. With programming geared specifically to student-athletes, it supplements the services offered by UCS. Events include career nights with former student-athletes, networking advice, and assistance with resumes and cover letters.

Coaching Excellence

- North Carolina's coaching staff has experience on all levels, including high school, college and the NFL. Seven of the nine coaches have coached in the NFL, six have been a coordinator in either college or the NFL, and five have head coaching experience.

- As a college head coach Butch Davis has coached or recruited 29 first-round NFL Draft picks, including North Carolina defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer in 2008.

- Davis has coached in 11 postseason bowl games, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

- Associate head coach John Blake is widely considered the top recruiter in the country. Blake has coached a first-round NFL Draft choice in each of the last two seasons (Adam Carriker, Kentwan Balmer).

- Ken Browning is the longest tenured coach at UNC and has coached on both sides of the ball.

- Jeff Connors is a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach, the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach.

- Tight ends coach Steve Hagen, who has experience in the NFL and is a former college offensive coordinator, helped develop Zack Pianalto into a freshman All-America in 2007.

- Under the tutelage of special teams coordinator John Lovett, place-kicker Connor Barth was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2007.

- Offensive line coach Sam Pittman has helped develop tackle Garrett Reynolds into one of the top linemen in the ACC.

- Under the guidance of coordinator John Shoop, Carolina's offense produced a pair of record-setting skill players in QB T.J. Yates and WR Hakeem Nicks.

- A former All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina, Tommy Thigpen is in his fourth season as the linebackers coach. His players have led the team in tackles each of the past three seasons.

- Wide receivers coach Charlie Williams coached Hakeem Nicks to a record-setting season in 2007.

- Everett Withers enters his first season as the Tar Heels' defensive coordinator. Withers has served as a college coordinator and has six years of NFL experience.

Carolina Gear

- Carolina will unveil its new Nike uniform in 2008. The jersey has an updated design, including a larger nameplate on the back of the jersey. The uniform is made of new performance fabrics, producing a tight shrink-wrapped fit. Both the jersey and pant are significantly lighter in weight and are produced with fabrics that hold far less moisture. Light weight mesh is added in areas traditionally covered by non-breathable fabrics. (in the upper back, neck and under arms where heat can escape). A Carolina Blue stripe on the side of the home (white) pants extends from just under the belt to the middle of the thigh.

- The Tar Heels dress in style on and off the field, wearing the best in gear from Nike, which has a long-term agreement with UNC to provide the Carolina squads with shoes, apparel, equipment bags and other products. The unique Carolina blue color is one of the most recognizable in the country.

Tar Heels in the Spotlight

- The Tar Heels receive national and local media coverage throughout the season. More than 200 media credentials are issued for most home games.

A total of 11 games in the 2007 season aired on television and four were broadcast nationally.

- UNC has launched a new portal on TarHeelBlue.com, called "Inside the Huddle With Butch Davis," which contains exclusive video commentary from the head football coach, a coach's video playbook feature, the Butch Davis TV show and video features of players, coaches and personalities within the Carolina football program. The site also contains video clips from Davis' press conference and post-practice interviews, and highlight packages from every game.

Each week, Davis provides exclusive commentary to Inside the Huddle and breaks down plays from the previous game as part of the video playbook. Go to www.ButchDavis.com.

- Season ticket sales surpassed school-record levels for the 2008 season as excitement continues to mount around the UNC program.

"Our fans have been great," says Butch Davis. "We had a fantastic gameday atmosphere last year. Our fans and their vocal support make a tremendous impact on our players and recruits."

Now in its 56th year of competition, the Atlantic Coast Conference has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 108 national championships, Including 57 in women's competition and 51 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 143 times in men's competition and 91 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999. In addition, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 22 seasons.

This past season 10 ACC players earned first team All-America recognition, while nine others garnered second or third team honors. The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 533 first or second team gridiron All-Americas and 73 first team Academic All-Americas.

Playing for the Prize

- As a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC plays each year for a berth in the Bowl Championship Series and a shot at the national title. ACC teams also compete for guaranteed spots in eight other outstanding games held in exciting locations across the country.

- The ACC is the nation's winningest bowl conference as the 12 current league teams are a combined 145-129-5 (.529) in post season play.

In 2002, the ACC set an NCAA record when seven of its nine teams received bowl bids. Eight teams have earned bowl invitations in each of the past three years, a feat matched by only one other conference.

The 2008 ACC Football Championship Game is scheduled for Dec. 6 in Tampa Bay. The 2009 game also will be played at Raymond James Stadium.

The 2010 and 2011 games are set for Charlotte, N.C.

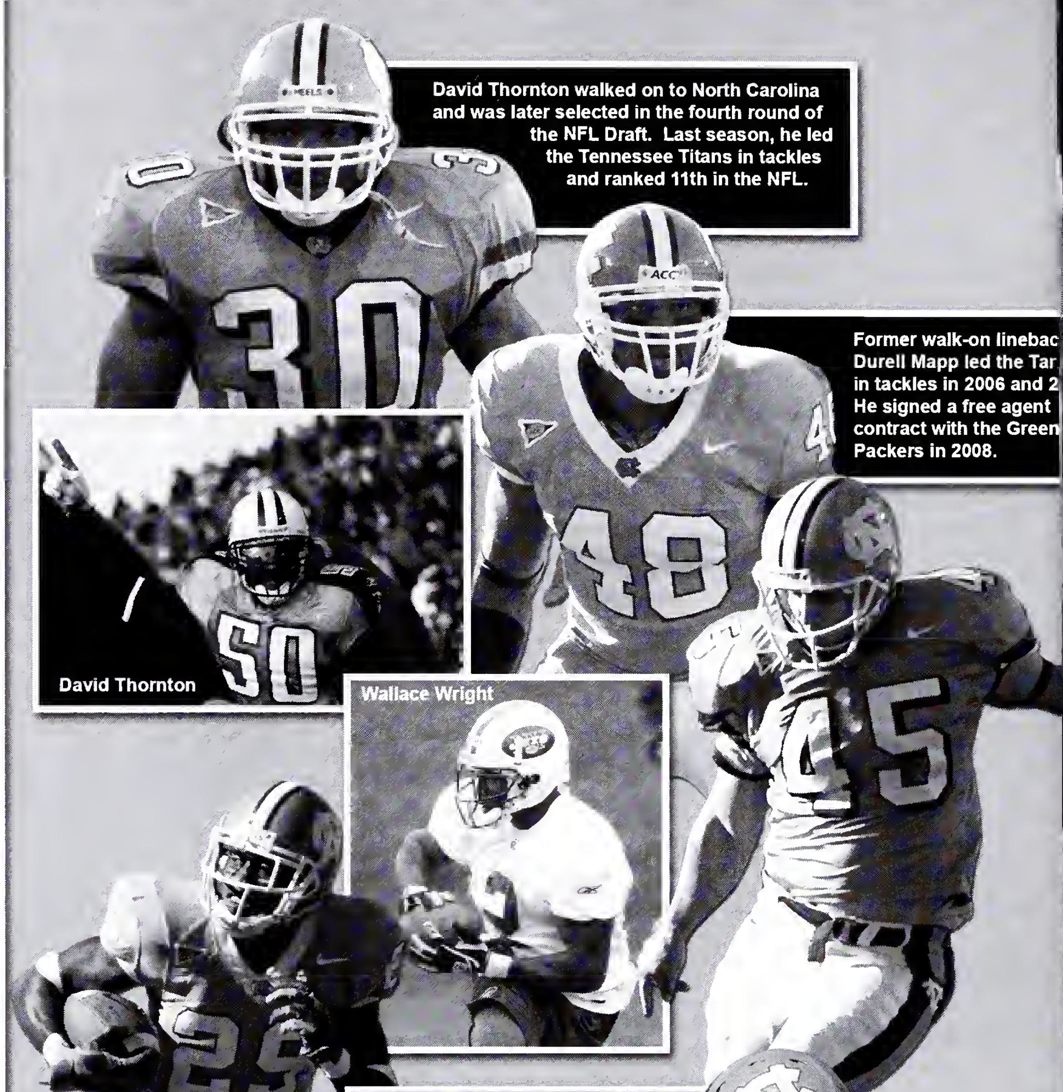
Walk-on Tradition

- Walk-ons play an important role in the Tar Heel program and have the opportunity to be a part of the UNC football family.

- "When walk-ons come here, once they are on the football team I could care less whether they're here on a Pell grant, the GI Bill, Uncle Sam, or their Mom and Dad paying the way. Once they get here, the best players will play. They always have the chance to earn a scholarship here."
– Head Coach Butch Davis

- Several walk-ons have earned scholarships at North Carolina over the last decade, including NFL players David Thornton, Greg Warren, Jeff Reed, Wallace Wright and Durell Mapp.

- Following spring practice, head coach Butch Davis awarded a scholarship for the 2008 season to junior center Lowell Dyer.



David Thornton walked on to North Carolina and was later selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft. Last season, he led the Tennessee Titans in tackles and ranked 11th in the NFL.

Some of the most legendary names in sports – Michael Jordan, Mia Hamm and Lawrence Taylor – were Tar Heels before they went on to great athletic success after college.

Coach Roy Williams and the Tar Heels won the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship.

Tar Heel fans, and Carolina students in particular, show great support for UNC's 28 varsity teams.

In two of the last three years, UNC has reached the Final Four in women's basketball.

The UNC baseball team has made it to the College World Series in each of the last three years.

Athletic Heritage

- North Carolina has won more Atlantic Coast Conference titles than any other school in the ACC. The Tar Heels also have more national titles – 35 – than any other league school.

- UNC ranked No. 1 on STACK magazine's 2007 Elite 50 list, based on academics, athletic opportunity and overall performance.

- Carolina finished third in the 2006-07 Director's Cup, a national competition that measures a program's postseason success. It was Carolina's sixth consecutive top-10 finish and the eighth time UNC has been in the top five.

- Tar Heel gear is annually among the top-selling collegiate apparel in the country.

- UNC finished No. 1 in the 2006-07 All-Sport Rankings by Sports Illustrated on Campus.

University of North Carolina

- The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century. Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the University was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president. The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., Feb. 12, 1795.

- Now in its third century, Carolina offers bachelor's, master's, doctoral and professional degrees in academic areas critical to North Carolina's future: business, dentistry, education, law, medicine, nursing, public health and social work, among others. Offerings include 71 bachelor's, 107 master's, 74 doctorate and four professional degree programs.

- Through teaching, research and public service, Carolina connects with the people of North Carolina every day in ways that improve lives and build futures. The University is committed to addressing the issues that North Carolinians are concerned most about – such as education, health care and economic development. The University's focus on excellence is to help North Carolina be the best that it can be.

Living in Chapel Hill

- Often referred to as "The Southern Part of Heaven," Chapel Hill has been called the perfect college town by several publications, including Sports Illustrated.

- Chapel Hill was selected as a finalist in ESPN's TitleTown, USA competition to pick the city most deserving of the name.

- A&E Network ranked Chapel Hill second on its list of America's "Top 10 Cities to Have It All."

- Chapel Hill was ranked fourth on a list of best towns for music.

- The Triangle (Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill) has been touted as one of the nation's top areas in which to live.

- Chapel Hill's location is ideal, within an easy drive of both beaches and mountains.

Franklin Street is the heart of Chapel Hill. Running along the north edge of campus, it provides a mix of restaurants, stores and nightlife and also is the s of celebrations and gatherings. Tar Heel fans mobbed the downtown to celebr UNC's NCAA men's basketball championship in 2005, and each year Hallowee festivies draw thousands of revelers.

The best recipe for a college town — beyond coffeehouses, live music and browse-worthy bookstores — calls for equal measures of youth, academic vigor and civic pride. Townies actually appreciate the college crowd, and vice versa. "Both wind up enhancing each other," says Edward Custard, lead author of The Princeton Review's The Best Colleges. As fall sets campus towns stirring with life, Custard culls 10 worth a visit.

Austin, Texas

Rarely can 55,000 students dive into a community and have things work out so swimmingly — and in a state capital, no less. The students of seven colleges meld with politicos and a slew of musicians. Sixth Street resounds with one music club after another, though "you might have trouble finding a polka band." City statues honor icons from pioneer Stephen F. Austin, who founded the first American colony in Texas, to blues master Stevie Ray Vaughan (with a stone Stratocaster).

Boulder, Colo.

A setting in the foothills of the Rockies is a nice plus. But the Pearl Street pedestrian mall and a shop-laden city hall center lend a "suburban cosmopolitan" feel to the home of the University of Colorado. "Kids wouldn't l dy was s much th show." D away.

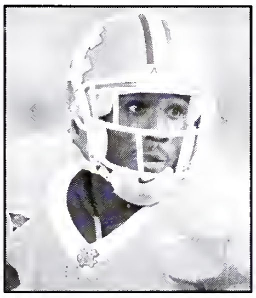
FOSTER FILLS ANY ROLE

By Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com



Even Brooks Foster has a little trouble describing where he fits in the North Carolina offense.

In Carolina's deep and talented pool of receivers, some have distinct job titles. Brandon Tate is the blazer. Hakeem Nicks is the go-to big-play man. And Foster? Well…

"I don't know how you describe my role," he says. "I'm the versatile guy. I can do my job, or I can do Hakeem's job, or I can do Brandon's job."

Whatever his job description, the senior has been a productive member of one of Carolina's most talented position groups. He has 67 career catches and three career touchdowns, and his 14.4 yards per catch and 29 receptions as a junior ranked second on the roster in each category.

In some ways, he's a beneficiary of the attention paid to Nicks and Tate. With opposing defenses forced to double-cover at least one of them, it can open some seams for Foster. But having such talent on the field at the same position also means he's unlikely to ever gain the status of a featured receiver.

The Boiling Springs, S.C., native doesn't seem to mind. Instead, he's focused on gaining consistency, especially after an up-and-down sophomore campaign that saw him catch 14 passes and a touchdown in the first two games but then amassed just 24 receptions and zero touchdowns over the final 10 games.

Since then, he's focused on turning his raw skills into a deeper understanding of football.

"I felt like I was a fairly complete receiver when I came into college, but I needed to improve all aspects of my game," Foster says. "The biggest part of that has been studying the game. And that doesn't mean just in the film room. You can do a lot of studying on the field, too. You can do it through experience."

In fact, he's the most experienced receiver in that gifted group and one of just a handful of seniors on a youthful Tar Heel offense. That doesn't mean he's planning to become a boisterous center of the huddle, instead preferring to lead by example, but he still has lofty goals for 2008 in an offense that has proven to be creative enough to get the ball into the hands of playmakers.

"I'm going to play a bigger role this year," he says. "To this point, I've kind of laid back. But this is my last year. I have to step forward and do what I can do, and I know I can do that."

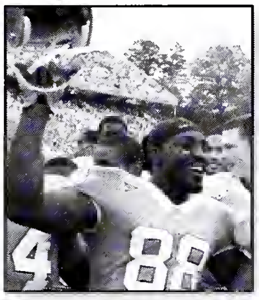
NICKS SAYS TIME IS NOW

By Adam Lucas, TarHeelBlue.com



Hakeem Nicks has done most everything a wide receiver can do during his Carolina career. He set a single-season school record with 74 receptions last season and also holds the Tar Heel freshman records for receptions (39) and receiving yards (660). He's in position—as just a junior—to challenge the school records for career receptions and career receiving yards. With a phenomenal catch and run, he made what Butch Davis called "one of the most inspirational plays I've seen in 33 years of coaching" against Virginia.

So it's a little surprising when Nicks responds so quickly to the question of whether there's anything he hasn't yet accomplished in his Tar Heel career:

"I haven't won," he says. "I haven't been to a bowl yet in my college career, and it's time to get that done."

That's a high priority for Nicks, who arrived at Carolina by way of the storied Charlotte Independence program and never lost a game in his high school career.

Adjusting to the parity of the college game and going just 7-17 in his first two years in Chapel Hill has been a challenge.

"That first year was hard," Nicks says of his 3-9 freshman campaign. "I knew before I got here that there would be a lot more competition at the ACC level. I wasn't expecting to win every single game. But I definitely want to win more than we have so far."

The Charlotte native is convinced that the offense is in place to score plenty of points—and post plenty of wins. The unit showed flashes of that potential in 2007, but was halted by a revolving door at tailback and, eventually, an injury to record-setting freshman quarterback T.J. Yates.

Now Greg Little is entrenched at tailback and Yates is healthy, which means coordinator John Shoop finally has a full set of weapons to deploy.

Nicks is still the acknowledged big-play master—Shoop loves the fact that his 6-foot-1 receiver can take a short pass at midfield and turn it into a long play, but is also versatile enough to be a strong target down around the goal line—but he's not the only threat.

"Our offense is going to shock people," Nicks says. "We have a lot of skilled players who make plays. If teams focus on me, Brandon Tate is on the other side and Brooks Foster is in the middle. And we've got Greg running the ball and a talented quarterback. We really are deep."

Deep enough, perhaps, to turn some of those narrow 2007 losses into victories?

"No doubt," Nicks says with the conviction of a man who understands what it takes to manufacture a winner. "This is our time."

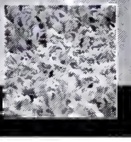
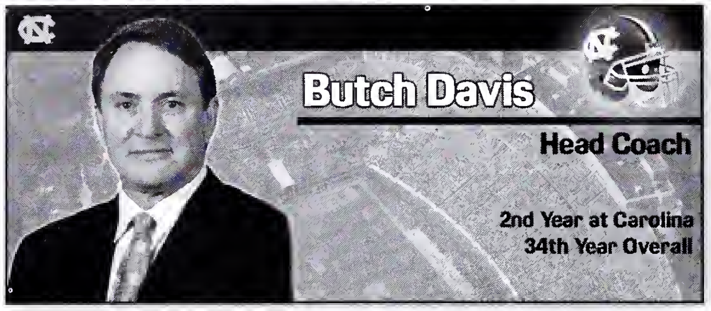
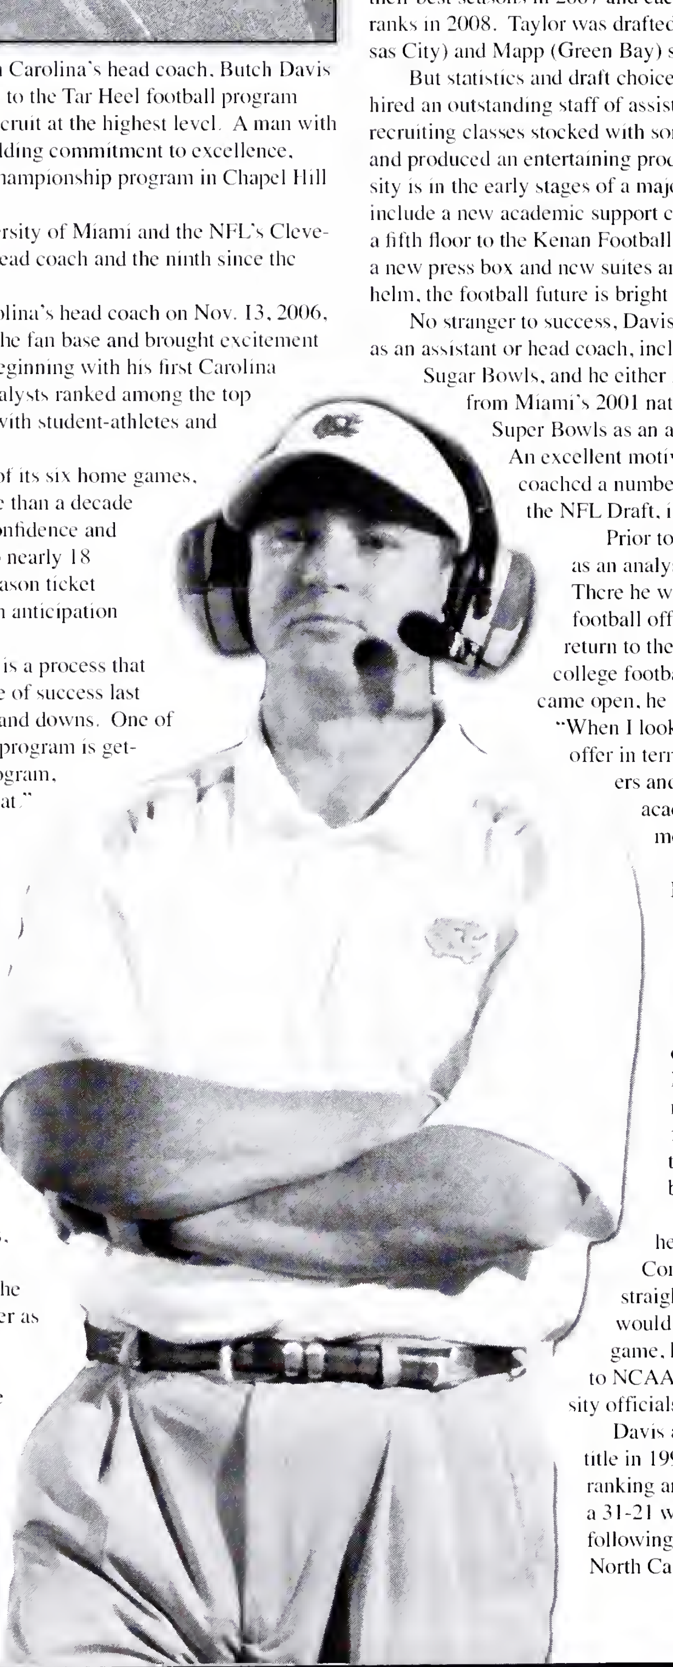
2008 COACHES PROFILES







Entering his second season as North Carolina's head coach, Butch Davis has brought energy and excitement back to the Tar Heel football program with his ability to motivate, teach and recruit at the highest level. A man with a proven record of success and an unyielding commitment to excellence, Davis has a clear vision for building a championship program in Chapel Hill based on integrity, character and honor.

The former head coach at the University of Miami and the NFL's Cleveland Browns, Davis is Carolina's 33rd head coach and the ninth since the ACC was formed in 1953.

Davis was introduced as North Carolina's head coach on Nov. 13, 2006, and in just one year he has rejuvenated the fan base and brought excitement to every Saturday at Kenan Stadium. Beginning with his first Carolina recruiting class in 2007, which many analysts ranked among the top 10 in the country, Davis has connected with student-athletes and fans alike with his brand of football.

Last season, Carolina sold out five of its six home games, averaged 57,417 fans – the most in more than a decade – and played with a renewed sense of confidence and enthusiasm. Average attendance was up nearly 18 percent from the previous season and season ticket sales have surged to more than 35,000 in anticipation of the 2008 campaign.

"Building a championship program is a process that takes time," says Davis. "We had a taste of success last year and grew together through the ups and downs. One of most important parts of developing this program is getting players to take ownership of the program, and we are starting to see evidence of that."

Davis's first season in Chapel Hill was highlighted by an impressive 33-27 win over Miami, in which he earned his first ACC victory against his former school. Carolina also secured wins over James Madison, Maryland and Duke, but saw several narrow victories slip from its grasp, dropping six games by a combined total of just 24 points. Statistically, Carolina finished 35th in the country in total defense, improving nearly 60 positions from the previous year. Offensively, quarterback T.J. Yates and Hakeem Nicks set school records for passing yards and receptions, respectively. On special teams, senior place-kicker Connor Barth was among the best in the country and finished his career as Carolina's all-time leader in field goals.

Several individuals benefitted from Davis's return to the college game, none more than defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer, who rose from part-time starter to an NFL first-round draft choice. Balmer had career highs in tackles and sacks, earned all-conference honors for the first time and became the 29th first-round draft choice Davis has produced as a college coach. Balmer's experience is yet another example that Davis and his staff prepare players for professional football better than any other group in the country.

"Coach Davis taught me how to be a professional player," says Balmer, who was taken with the 29th overall pick by the San Francisco 49ers. "I know I still have a lot to learn, but I think I understand more of what it takes to be an NFL player now than I did before. I wouldn't be a first-round draft pick without his help and guidance."

Defensive end Hilee Taylor, linebacker Durell Mapp and Barth all had their best seasons in 2007 and each earned the opportunity to join the NFL ranks in 2008. Taylor was drafted by the Carolina Panthers and Barth (Kansas City) and Mapp (Green Bay) signed free agent NFL contracts.

But statistics and draft choices don't reveal the full story. Davis has hired an outstanding staff of assistant coaches, brought in back-to-back recruiting classes stocked with some of the nation's top high school players, and produced an entertaining product on the field. In addition, the University is in the early stages of a major renovation of Kenan Stadium that will include a new academic support center for all of Carolina's student-athletes, a fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center for additional football operations, a new press box and new suites and club seating options. With Davis at the helm, the football future is bright in Chapel Hill.

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 11 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. An excellent motivator and technician, Davis recruited or coached a number of players at Miami who were selected in the NFL Draft, including an amazing 28 first-round picks.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis served as an analyst on the NFL Network for two seasons. There he was able to watch and study the latest college football offensive and defensive schemes. Yearning to return to the college coaching ranks, Davis surveyed the college football landscape, and when the Carolina job came open, he was immediately interested.

"When I looked at everything North Carolina had to offer in terms of a great campus setting, access to players and the proper balance between athletics and academics, I knew this would be a good fit for me and my family," said Davis.

Davis was head coach for six seasons at Miami (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances. He took over a Miami program faced with NCAA sanctions that restricted the number of scholarships in his first three seasons. However, his Hurricane teams finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including No. 2 in the nation in 2000, when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Davis helped the Canes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the '95 season. The team would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis's arrival.

Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. The following season he led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl.

Davis's 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis.

In his final year at Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. That team was second in the nation in scoring, fifth in total offense, fifth in scoring defense and eighth in pass defense.

Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics, and his Hurricanes earned recognition from the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his six seasons.

Davis left Coral Gables following the 2000 season to join the Cleveland Browns. In his first season in Cleveland in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (four interception returns, one fumble return, one safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less. Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988.

The Davis Family: Drew, Tammy and Butch

Cleveland was Davis' second stint in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-94 and was defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994. The Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls in 1992 and 1993 and played in one other NFC championship game. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL programs in the 1990s. He was the defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular-season games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994 and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied its bid for a three-peat. Davis's defense was No. 1 in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He coached three Pro Bowl starters – end Charles Haley, tackle Leon Lett and safety Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis was defensive line coach at Miami from 1984-88 under head coach Jimmy Johnson, whom he also coached under for five years in Dallas and five years at Oklahoma State. The Hurricanes went 52-9 in those five years and won the national championship after beating Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 12-0 record in 1987. He coached 15 linemen who went on to play in the NFL, including All-Americas Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown. Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988 and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Johnson's Oklahoma State University teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for Coach Frank Broyles. A knee injury curtailed his college career, and he became a student assistant coach for the Razorbacks. He earned a bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974. His coaching career began as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville High School in Arkansas. He had stints in Oklahoma at Pawhuska High School (1974-75) and Sand Springs High School (1976-77) as an assistant coach and at Tulsa Rogers High School (1978) in his first head coaching assignment before joining Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State.

He and his wife, Tammy, have a teenage son, Drew. Paul Hilton (Butch) Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Okla.

What Others Are Saying About Butch Davis:

"Coach Davis taught me how to be a professional player. I know I still have a lot to learn, but I think I understand more of what it takes to be an NFL player now than I did before. I wouldn't be a first-round draft pick without his help and guidance."

Kentwan Balmer, Defensive Tackle
Taken in the first-round of the 2008 NFL Draft

"North Carolina is extremely fortunate to have a man like Coach Davis in their corner. He is above and beyond a players' coach. He's a family coach. He helped me so much both on and off the field in preparation for my NFL days, and I will forever be grateful. I'd keep an eye out on their program for years to come because the man is special and he's going to make many people happy."

Reggie Wayne, Wide Receiver
Indianapolis Colts

"Coach Davis does everything he can to run his operation and prepare his players for success at the highest level possible. He prepares his players and his team as if it were a professional program. His players will be well-equipped for the NFL level because he puts his players in a position to succeed on the college level like it were a pro team. He runs a program like no other, when guys come in as 19-year olds or whatever the case may be, he molds them into men as players and as people. He gets his players focused on the important things within the team and school and has the respect of his players for them to act the right way."

Santana Moss, Wide Receiver
Washington Redskins

"His office door is always open if guys need to go up there to talk to him. Whether it's about football or a personal issue, he's a guy that is going to open his door to you and be honest with you. He's more like a father figure."

Damione Lewis, Defensive Tackle
Carolina Panthers

"Butch Davis worked for me for many years and did a great job. He is an outstanding coach and recruiter, and North Carolina is extremely fortunate to obtain him. I'm sure he'll do a great job."

Jimmy Johnson,
Fox Sports NFL Analyst,
Former Miami (Fla.) & NFL Head Coach

"One of the things you'll find out about Butch is how much he cares about people. You could see that in the fifth and sixth grade and you could see that all through college. He's a person who once he gets to know you, will always remember you and stay in touch with you. His concerns are not about what you do on the football field, his concerns are what you do as a young man, about being respectful to your family, about being respectful to the community and being thoughtful to your teammates and fellow students. He wants to prepare young men who will go on and be successful beyond the football field because football is only temporary."

John Tyson, Chairman of Tyson Foods
Friend of Davis's since the second grade

"Butch Davis is a man of integrity, who is a superb coach with great people skills. He is an excellent role model with a strong commitment to his profession and calling, which enables him to recruit quality players who win on the playing field and prepares them for a life after football. ... I believe he is an excellent choice for the job."

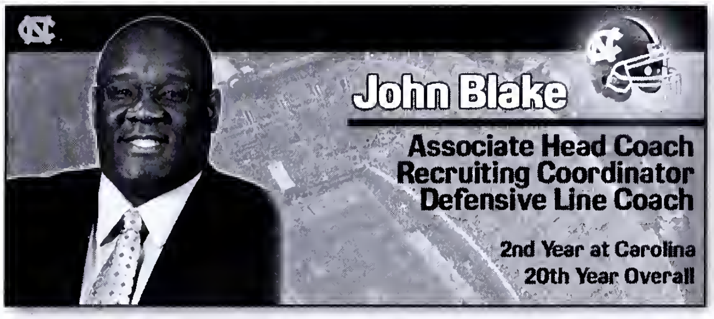
ASSISTANT COACH PROFILE - JOHN BLAKE



The Blake Family: Freda, John and Jaurdan

John Blake enters his second season on the North Carolina staff as the Tar Heels' associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. Blake, who coached with Butch Davis in Dallas, has developed some of the top defensive linemen in the country at all levels, including high school, college and the NFL.

In 2007, North Carolina defensive lineman Kentwan Balmer and Hilee Taylor had their best seasons in just one year under Blake. They were both taken in the 2008 NFL Draft, and Balmer, a defensive tackle, was selected by the San Francisco 49ers with the 29th pick in the first round. He became the 17th overall first-round draft pick in North Carolina history after finishing his senior season with a career-high 59 tackles and 9.5 tackles for losses. Taylor was second in the ACC in sacks and third in tackles for losses and was selected in the seventh round by the Carolina Panthers.

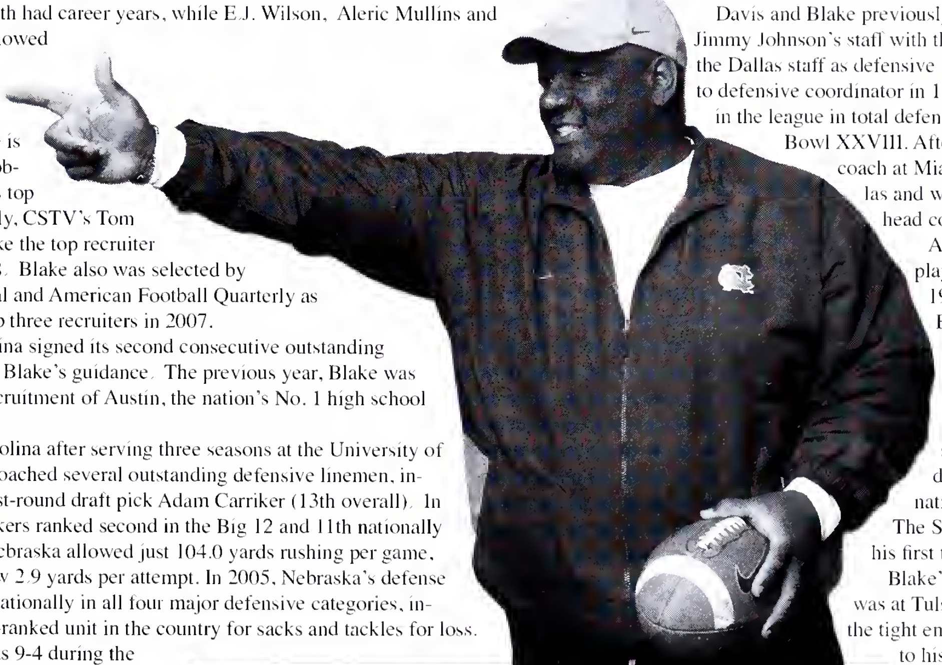
Blake earned rave reviews from NFL Draft analysts for his ability to develop Balmer into a first-round selection in just one year of coaching. "Kentwan had a great senior year under the tutelage of John Blake, who I think is one of the best defensive line coaches at any level," said ESPN's Mel Kiper Jr.

Blake's defensive line played a major role in the Tar Heels' defense improving more than 60 positions from the previous year in the NCAA statistical rankings. Balmer and Taylor both had career years, while E.J. Wilson, Aleric Mullins and Marvin Austin also showed steady progress.

In addition to his abilities as a defensive line coach, Blake is considered by many observers as the nation's top recruiter. Most recently, CSTV's Tom Lemming named Blake the top recruiter in the country in 2008. Blake also was selected by the Wall Street Journal and American Football Quarterly as one of the nation's top three recruiters in 2007.

In February, Carolina signed its second consecutive outstanding recruiting class under Blake's guidance. The previous year, Blake was responsible for the recruitment of Austin, the nation's No. 1 high school defensive player.

Blake came to Carolina after serving three seasons at the University of Nebraska, where he coached several outstanding defensive linemen, including 2007 NFL first-round draft pick Adam Carriker (13th overall). In his first year, the Huskers ranked second in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in rushing defense. Nebraska allowed just 104.0 yards rushing per game, including a league-low 2.9 yards per attempt. In 2005, Nebraska's defense ranked in the top 30 nationally in all four major defensive categories, including being the top-ranked unit in the country for sacks and tackles for loss. In 2006, Nebraska was 9-4 during the regular season and accepted an invitation to play Auburn in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 2007. The Huskers defensive line was ranked the top defensive line unit in the country by CollegeFootballNews.com. Blake also coached in the Huskers' 32-28 win over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl.



Blake's role in helping bring some of the country's most talented players to the University of Nebraska led to his inclusion as a finalist for National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com in 2006. He also was responsible for recruiting the majority of the starters on Oklahoma's 2000 national championship team.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Blake served one season as Mississippi State's defensive line coach in 2003. He was the director of a professional developmental camp called "A Chance To Advance Football Camp" for four years before joining MSU. Among his clients were Miami Dolphins defensive end Jason Taylor, New Orleans Saints defense end Darren Howard and Indianapolis Colts defensive end Dwight Freeney.

Davis and Blake previously worked together as members of Jimmy Johnson's staff with the Dallas Cowboys. Blake joined the Dallas staff as defensive line coach after Davis was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1993. That year, Dallas ranked eighth in the league in total defense and beat Buffalo, 30-13, in Super Bowl XXVIII. After Davis left to become the head coach at Miami in 1995, Blake remained in Dallas and won another Super Bowl title under head coach Barry Switzer.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Blake played for Switzer at Oklahoma from 1979-82, where he earned All-Big Eight honors at nose guard. He later returned to his alma mater to serve as head coach of the Sooners from 1996-98.

At Oklahoma, Blake began as a student assistant working with the defensive line in 1985 and earned a national championship ring that season. The Sooners lost just two games during his first tenure on the staff.

Blake's first full-time assistant position was at Tulsa from 1987-88, where he coached the tight ends and wide receivers. He returned to his alma mater in 1989 as the Sooners' defensive line coach, and then served as Gary Gibbs' linebackers coach from 1990 to 1992.

After Johnson hired Blake in Dallas, five players made the Pro Bowl during his three seasons. Blake's defensive line was considered one of the best in the NFL during his tenure. Among others, Blake tutored Pro Bowlers Charles Haley, Russell Maryland, Leon Lett, Chad Hennning, Tony Tolbert and Jim Jeffcoat.

Blake earned his bachelor's degree in public relations and recreation from Oklahoma in 1986. He and his wife, Freda, have one son, Jourdan.

Ken Browning

Assistant Coach
Running Backs

15th Year at Carolina
41st Year Overall

The longest tenured assistant coach at North Carolina, Ken Browning enters his 15th season with the Tar Heels and second as the running backs coach. Browning has coached on the offensive and defensive side of the ball at UNC, including three seasons as tight ends coach (2001-04) and 11 years as defensive tackles coach (1994-2000, 2005-06). Butch Davis is the fourth head coach Browning has worked under at North Carolina. Browning also oversees Carolina's camps and clinics.

Last year, Browning had the unique challenge of coaching a position group comprised of all freshmen and sophomores. In fact, Carolina began 2007 with just one player who had any experience as a college running back. That player was sophomore Richie Rich, who later moved to cornerback. Carolina's top four rushers last season were all freshmen - Johnny White, Greg Little, Anthony Elzy and Ryan Houston. Little started the last two games against Georgia Tech and Duke and enters 2008 as the likely starter.

In 14 seasons in Chapel Hill, Browning has developed a number of outstanding players, including first-round NFL draft picks Vonnie Holliday (DT), Marcus Jones (DT/DE) and Ryan Sims (DT) and second-round picks Rick Terry (DT) and Russell Davis (DT). He also recruited and coached 2008 first-round NFL draft pick Kentwan Balmer. Sports Illustrated selected North Carolina's defensive tackles in its positional "Dream Team" in its 1998 preseason college football issue. Nearly every defensive tackle Browning coached at UNC has been drafted by or signed by an NFL franchise. In 2002, Sims, who played under Browning for three years, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round with the No. 6 pick.

Browning is in his second stint coaching on the offensive side of the ball at UNC. He coached Carolina's tight ends for four seasons (2001-04), where he developed several standout players, including NFL players Zach Hilton and Bobby Blizzard.

With Browning on the defensive side of the ball, the Tar Heels led the ACC in total defense from 1995-97 and finished No. 2 in the nation in yards allowed in 1996 and 1997. The Tar Heels were third in the country against the run in 1996 allowing 73.9 yards per game. In 1997, Carolina was fourth in the nation stopping the run as opponents averaged 77.9 yards per contest. UNC held opponents to less than 50 yards rushing in six games and less than 100 yards in nine of 12 games.

Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000, Browning directed a UNC squad that set a school record with an ACC-best 53 sacks. Carolina finished 19th in the nation against the run, allowing just 103.5 yards per game, and was second in the league and 30th in the nation in total defense.

One of the state's most decorated high school coaches, Browning joined the Tar Heel staff in 1994 and has coached in some of the most memorable Carolina football games. He has been a part of seven bowl games and was on the staff in 1996-97 when UNC had a combined record of 21-3 and finished ranked in the top 10 both seasons.

Browning was the head coach and athletic director at Northern High School for 18 years. He posted a 178-35 record and won the 1993 4-A state title and Shrine Bowl. Over his last three years, Northern built a 43-2 record and he was named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 1992 and 1993. He became only the third coach to win both the state title and Shrine Bowl in the same year.

Browning and his wife, Susan, have three sons – Chuck, John and Joe.

Jeff Connors
Assistant Athletic Director
Strength & Conditioning
8th Year at Carolina
28th Year Overall

Jeff Connors is in his eighth year as Carolina's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and his seventh as an assistant athletic director. While his primary focus is the football team's strength and conditioning, Connors oversees the department's entire strength and conditioning program and also works specifically with the women's basketball team.

In 2003, Connors was honored as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa). The Master Strength & Conditioning Coach certification is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach, representing professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise and longevity in the field.

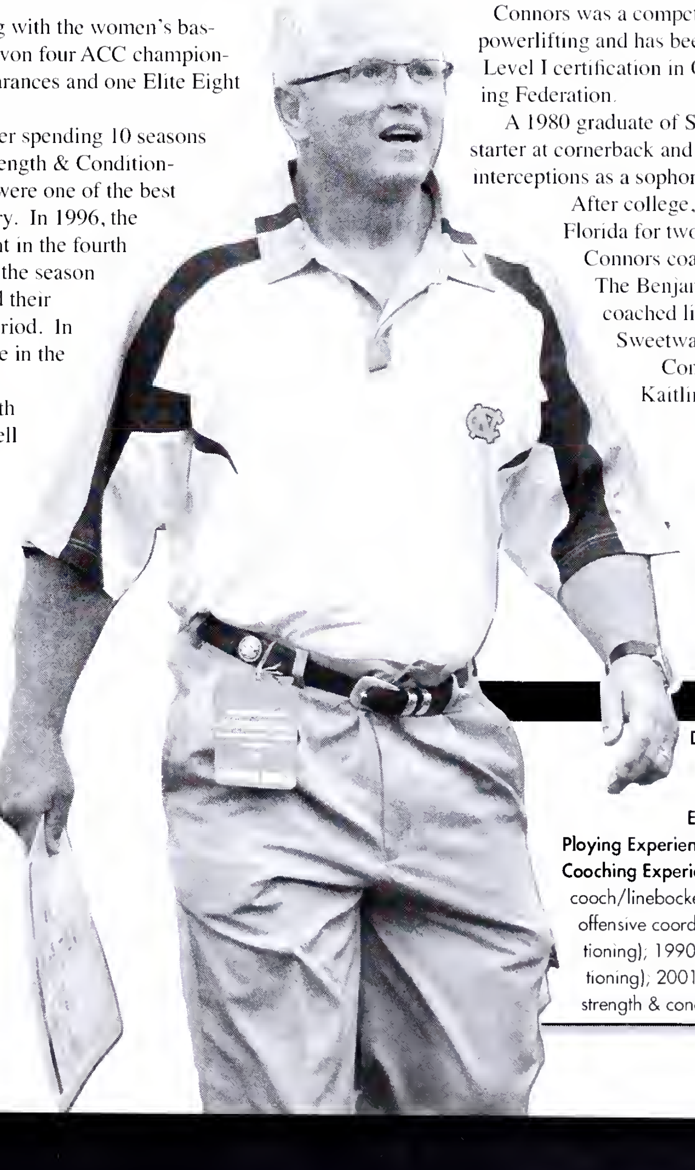
Connors has helped develop some of the top players in Carolina's program, including Julius Peppers, Ronald Curry, David Thornton and Kentwan Balmer, among others. In four years under Connors' direction, Balmer increased his overall strength and agility and became a first-round NFL draft choice.

Connors' conditioning program was one of the reasons for Carolina's late-season surge in 2004 as the Tar Heels won three of the last four regular-season contests and earned a berth in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Since Connors began working with the women's basketball team, the Tar Heels have won four ACC championships, made two Final Four appearances and one Elite Eight appearance.

Connors came to Carolina after spending 10 seasons as East Carolina's Director of Strength & Conditioning. Under Connors, the Pirates were one of the best fourth-quarter teams in the country. In 1996, the ECU defense did not allow a point in the fourth quarter until the seventh game of the season and in 1999, the Pirates outscored their opponents, 102-56, in the final period. In 2000, ECU had a 94-57 advantage in the fourth quarter.

Connors' was the head strength and conditioning coach at Bucknell prior to his experience at East Carolina.



Several of Connors' former assistants are now head strength and conditioning coaches at other universities, including: Tom Howley, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Cornell; Jay Butler, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Rutgers; Jennifer Jones, Head Coach of Strength & Conditioning for Women's Sports at Texas A&M; Sonny Sano, Director of Strength & Conditioning at Ohio; Toby Jacobi, Strength & Conditioning Coach at Charleston Southern; Josh Bush, Head Strength Coach, Morgan State; Wes Herlocker, Head Strength & Conditioning Coach, Wofford; Aaron Walker, Head Strength & Conditioning Coach at Elon.

The Connors Family: Jeff, Michele, Kaitlin and Beau

Connors was the featured speaker at the 1995 National Strength and Conditioning Association Conference in Phoenix, the 1996 NSCA Conference in Atlanta and the 2003 NSCA Conference. In 1996, he was the Regional Director of the Year and was nominated for National Strength Coach of the Year in 1991.

Connors was a competitive powerlifter and has won four state titles in powerlifting and has been ranked as high as fourth nationally. He holds Level I certification in Olympic Weight Lifting by the U.S. Weight Lifting Federation.

A 1980 graduate of Salem (W. Va.) College, Connors was a four-year starter at cornerback and was team captain as a senior. He led Salem in interceptions as a sophomore and junior.

After college, Connors served as a police officer in South Florida for two years. Prior to becoming a strength coach, Connors coached high school football and wrestling at The Benjamin School in North Palm Beach, Fla., and he coached linebackers at the Tennessee Military Institute in Sweetwater, Tenn.

Connors and his wife, Michele, have a daughter, Kaitlin, and a son, Beau.

Steve Hagen

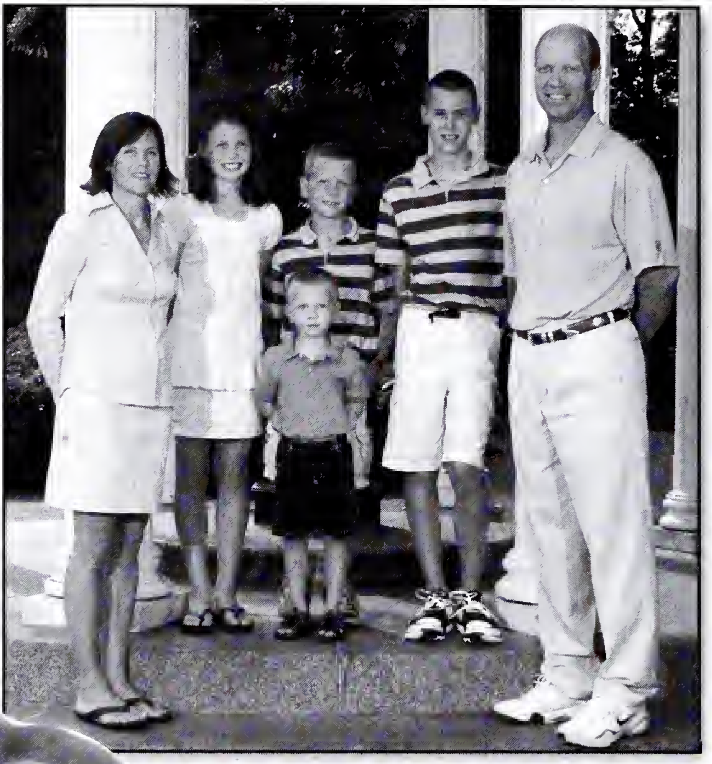
Assistant Coach
Tight Ends

2nd Year at Carolina
26th Year Overall

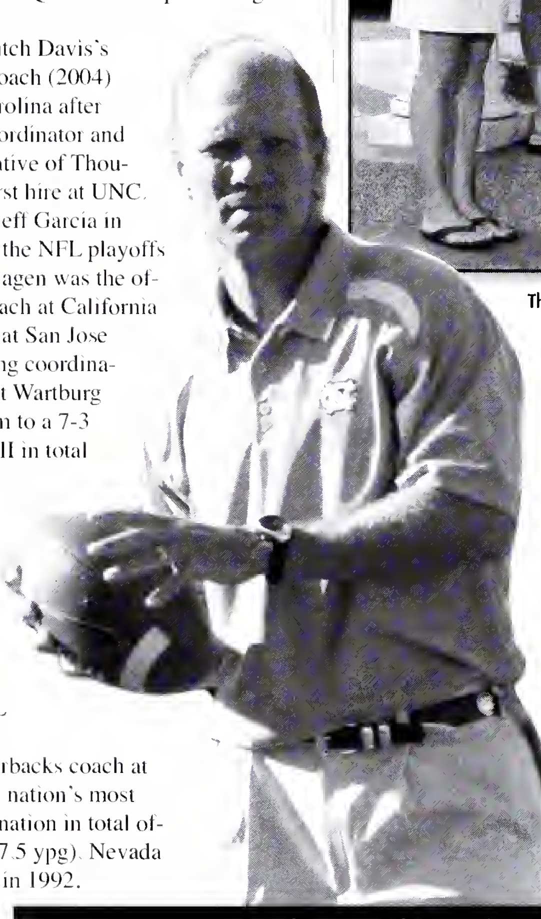
Steve Hagen enters his second season as North Carolina's tight ends coach.

Last year, Hagen developed rookie Zack Pianalto, who was selected to several freshman all-america teams, into an outstanding first-year player. Pianalto finished fourth on the squad with 24 receptions for 204 yards. Tight ends Ed Barham and Richard Quinn also improved significantly in 2007.

Hagen, who spent four seasons as Butch Davis's tight ends (2001-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004) with the Cleveland Browns, came to Carolina after spending one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fresno State. A native of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Hagen was Davis's first hire at UNC.



The Hagen Family: Amy, Hanna, Soren, Wil, Nash and Steve



Hagen coached Kelly Holcomb and Jeff Garcia in Cleveland and helped the Browns reach the NFL playoffs in 2002. Prior to his work in the NFL, Hagen was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at California from 1999-2000, and spent two seasons at San Jose State as quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator in 1997-98. He was the head coach at Wartburg College (Iowa) in 1996, guiding the team to a 7-3 record and a No. 8 ranking in Division III in total offense.

Hagen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at UNLV from 1994-95. The Rebels broke 20 school offensive records in two seasons and beat Central Michigan, 52-24, in the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl. As the wide receivers coach at UNLV in 1990, he coached 16-year NFL veteran Keenan McCardell.

From 1992-93, Hagen was the quarterbacks coach at Nevada. The Wolf Pack were among the nation's most productive offensive teams, leading the nation in total offense (569.1 ypg) and passing yards (397.5 ypg). Nevada played in the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl in 1992.

Hagen spent the 1991 season as the quarterbacks coach at Kent State. In 1990, he was a graduate assistant receivers coach under Lou Holtz at Notre Dame, where he worked with Raghib "Rocket" Ismail and the Fighting Irish defeated Colorado, 21-6, in the 1990 Orange Bowl. He also held coaching positions at Northern Arizona, Illinois and Kansas from 1984-88.

Hagen was a wide receiver at Cal Lutheran from 1979-83, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in business.

Hagen first began his flirtation with coaching while working at the Dallas Cowboys' training site at Cal Lutheran. He began as a ball boy and eventually was a camera operator, where he got to know head coach Tom Landry.

He and his wife, Amy, have four children, Nash, Hanna, Wil and Soren.

John Lovett enters his second season as North Carolina's special teams coordinator and defensive assistant. Lovett came to Carolina with 18 years of experience as a defensive coordinator, including stops at Clemson, Auburn and Mississippi.

Lovett was part of a defensive staff that improved more than 60 positions from the previous year in the NCAA's total defense statistical rankings. In addition, kick returner Brandon Tate established the ACC career mark for kickoff return yards and returned a punt for a touchdown. UNC kicker Connor Barth had his best season in 2007, connecting on 19 of 22 field goals and setting the school career mark for field goals.

Prior to coming to Carolina, Lovett was the defensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 2005-06. In addition to coordinating the defense at Bowling Green, Lovett coached linebackers in 2005 and defensive backs in 2006. In his first year at BGSU, Lovett's defense ranked 20th in the country in turnover margin.

The defensive coordinator at Clemson from 2002-04, Lovett helped develop one of the ACC's top defenses and defensive backs Justin Miller and Brian Mance earned All-America honors. In 2004, Clemson was 11th in the nation in pass defense efficiency (103.4) and 26th in total defense (327.3). In 2003, his defense allowed just 19.2 points per game as Clemson finished the year with nine wins and a top 25 national ranking.

Lovett was the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 1999-2001 and helped lead the Tigers to bowl games each of his last two years. In 2001, Auburn earned a berth in the Peach Bowl opposite North Carolina.

Lovett coached the secondary all four years he was at Ole Miss (1995-98), including the 1997 season when the Rebels had an 8-4 overall record, including a victory in the Motor City Bowl.

Prior to coming to Mississippi in 1995, Lovett worked as defensive coordinator at the University of Maine for two stints. He first went to Orono in 1985 and served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1985-88. He also served as defensive coordinator for the Black Bears in 1994. The 1987 team won the conference championship and qualified for the Division I-AA playoffs.

Lovett began his career in coaching at Saint Joseph's Region High School in Montvale, N.J., in 1976. He started his college career in 1978 at Union College in New York, where he worked until 1982. Lovett spent the 1983 season in the Ivy League at Brown, and then moved back to New York to work under Joe Walton as the New York Jets' defensive quality control coach in 1984. In 1989, he joined head coach Tim Murphy at the University of Cincinnati, where he remained until 1992. In 1993, he coached at UNLV as the secondary coach.

Lovett graduated from C.W. Post College in December of 1973. He came to the school as a walk-on, but quickly earned a scholarship and served as the team's co-captain as a senior in 1973. He played for Dom Amile, who is now the Director of Football Operations for the Indianapolis Colts. At the completion of his career, he enrolled in graduate school at the University of Denver and he earned his Master's Degree in 1975. The next year he entered the coaching profession.

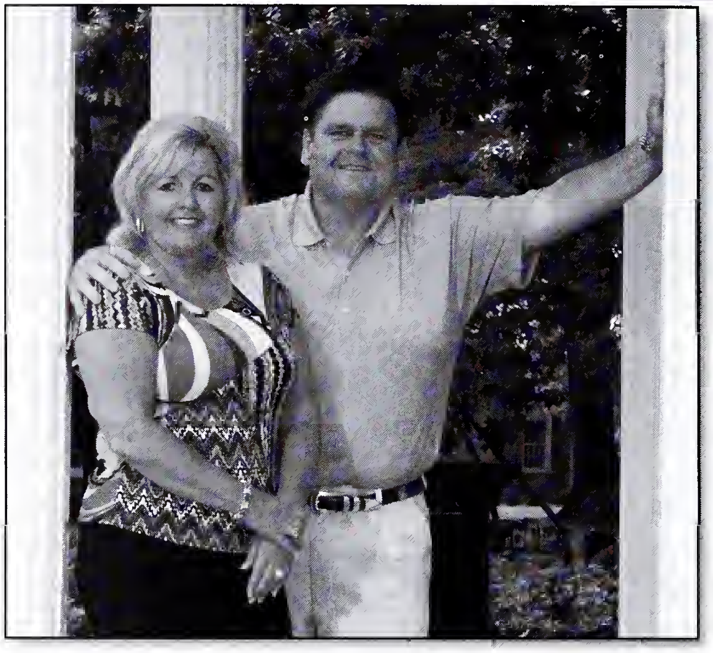
ASSISTANT COACH PROFILE - SAM PITTMAN

Sam Pittman

Assistant Coach
Offensive Line

2nd Year at Carolina
24th Year Overall



Jamie and Sam Pittman

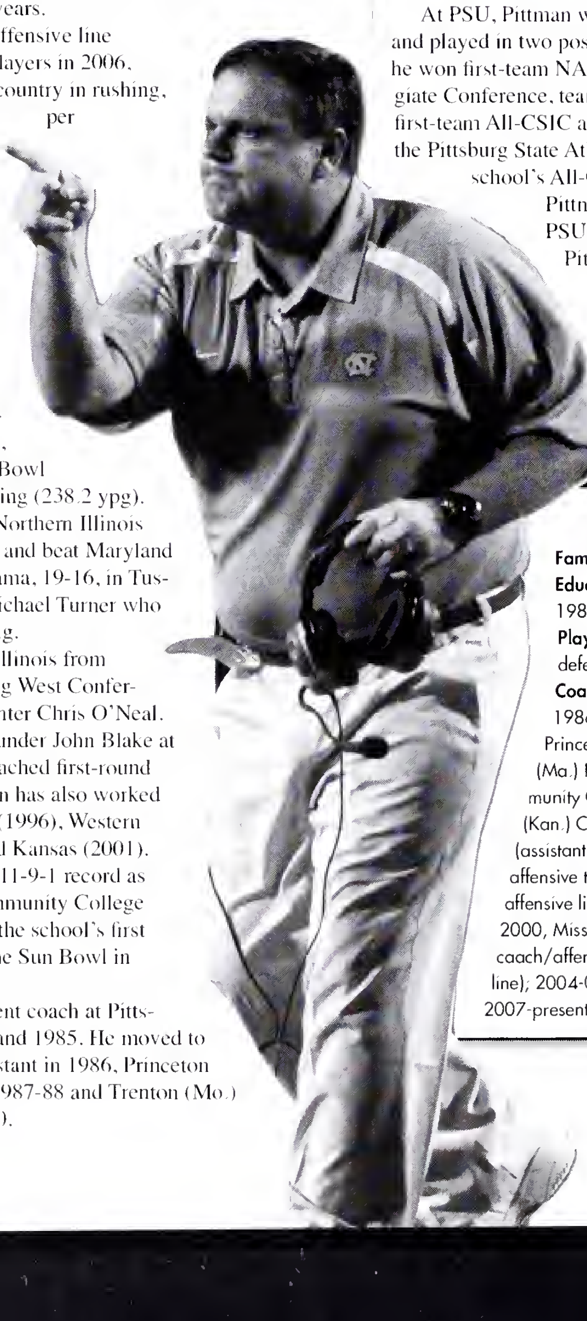
Sam Pittman enters his second season as North Carolina's offensive line coach.

In 2007, Pittman had to develop an offensive line that included three first-year starters and just one senior among its top 10 players. Still, UNC's offensive line showed steady progress and had two of its best two games at the end of the season against Georgia Tech and Duke. Offensive tackle Garrett Reynolds flourished under Pittman's tutelage and enters 2008 as one of the top linemen in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Pittman came to Carolina after serving four seasons as Northern Illinois' offensive line coach (2003-06) and three years as its assistant head coach (2004-06). In 2006, the Huskies' offensive line paved the way for the nation's leading rusher, Garrett Wolfe, to run for more than 1,900 yards.

In four years at NIU, Pittman produced nine All-Mid-American Conference linemen, including seven first-team selections. NIU had a tailback top the 1,500-yard rushing mark all four years.

Despite three new starters on the offensive line and two freshmen among its top six players in 2006, Northern Illinois finished 17th in the country in rushing, averaging more than 180 yards per game. Wolfe finished his career as NIU's all-time leading rusher and is the 11th-leading rusher in NCAA history. The Huskies' offensive line played particularly well in the 2006 season opener at No. 1 Ohio State as NIU gained 171 yards on the ground.



In 2005, the Huskies were 16th nationally in rushing, averaging 206.7 yards. That season, Northern Illinois rushed for 211 yards at Michigan and 256 at Northwestern. In 2004, NIU was 9-3, won the Silicon Valley Bowl and finished 11th in the nation in rushing (238.2 ypg).

Pittman began his second term at Northern Illinois in 2003. That year, NIU finished 10-2 and beat Maryland and Iowa State and knocked off Alabama, 19-16, in Tuscaloosa. Pittman's line blocked for Michael Turner who finished second in the nation in rushing.

Pittman first coached at Northern Illinois from 1994-95 and produced a trio of All-Big West Conference talent, including All-America center Chris O'Neal. Pittman was the offensive line coach under John Blake at Oklahoma from 1996-98 where he coached first-round draft pick Stockar McDougle. Pittman has also worked with the offensive lines at Cincinnati (1996), Western Michigan (1999), Missouri (2000) and Kansas (2001).

Before NIU, Pittman produced an 11-9-1 record as head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 1992-93. His 1993 team earned the school's first bowl bid n 23 years at the Valley of the Sun Bowl in Phoenix.

Pittman began his career as a student coach at Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1984 and 1985. He moved to Beggs (Okla.) High School as an assistant in 1986, Princeton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1987-88 and Trenton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1989-90.

At PSU, Pittman won four football letters, finished with 35 straight starts, and played in two postseason games at defensive end (1980-83). As a senior, he won first-team NAIA All-America, first-team All-Central States Intercollegiate Conference, team captain and co-MVP honors. In 1982, Pittman made first-team All-CSIC and team defensive MVP. In 1998, he was inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2004, he was voted to the school's All-Century squad.

Pittman received a bachelor's degree in education from PSU in 1986. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad of Pittsburg, Kan.

John Shoop

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

2nd Year at Carolina
18th Year Overall

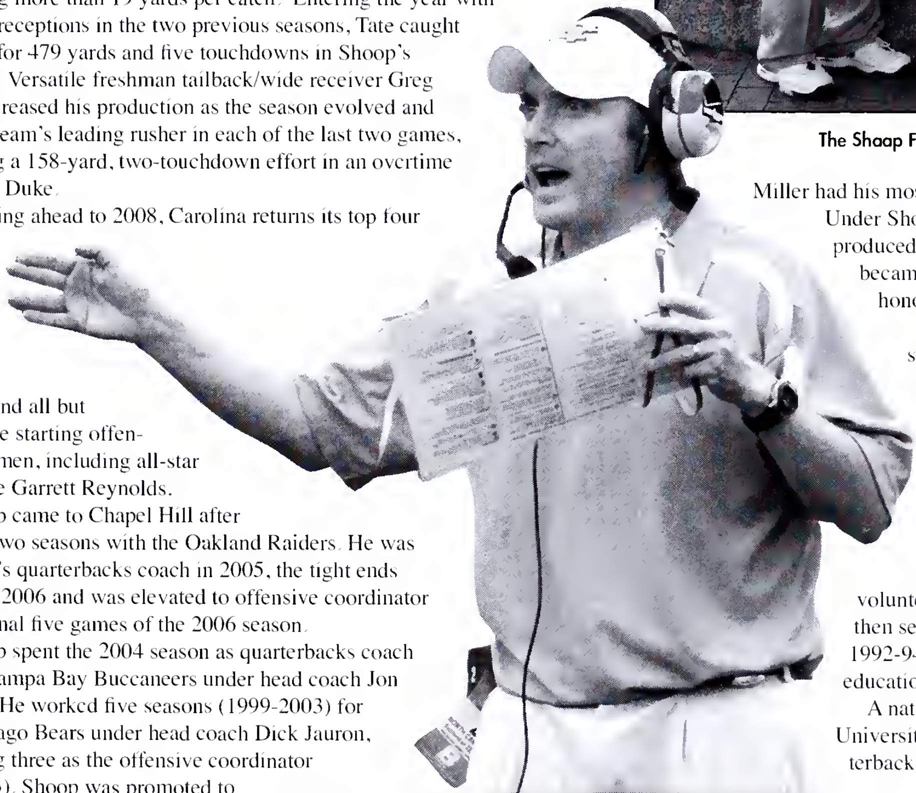
The Shoop Family: John, Mary Elizabeth, Sidney & Marcia

John Shoop enters his second season as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Despite working with an offense that featured just one senior starter, Shoop developed an exciting offense led by a pair of record-setting skill players in 2007. Quarterback T.J. Yates set the single-season school record in passing yards and wide receiver Hakeem Nicks set a school mark with 74 receptions. Yates, an unknown prior to the start of the season finished fourth all-time among ACC freshmen in single-season passing yardage and was selected first-team freshman All-America by The Sporting News.

Nicks, a second-team All-ACC selection, had 958 yards receiving (third highest total in school history) and five touchdowns. Fellow wide receiver Brandon Tate became one of the best big-play threats in the conference, averaging more than 19 yards per catch. Entering the year with just five receptions in the two previous seasons, Tate caught 25 balls for 479 yards and five touchdowns in Shoop's offense. Versatile freshman tailback/wide receiver Greg Little increased his production as the season evolved and was the team's leading rusher in each of the last two games, including a 158-yard, two-touchdown effort in an overtime win over Duke.

Looking ahead to 2008, Carolina returns its top four rushers and all but one of the starting offensive linemen, including all-star candidate Garrett Reynolds.



Shoop came to Chapel Hill after serving two seasons with the Oakland Raiders. He was Oakland's quarterbacks coach in 2005, the tight ends coach in 2006 and was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games of the 2006 season.

Shoop spent the 2004 season as quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. He worked five seasons (1999-2003) for the Chicago Bears under head coach Dick Jauron, including three as the offensive coordinator (2001-03). Shoop was promoted to Chicago's offensive coordinator position after spending the 1999-2000 seasons as the Bears quarterbacks coach. At the time, he was one of the youngest coordinators in NFL history.

In his first season as the coordinator in Chicago, Shoop revitalized the Chicago offense and helped lead the Bears to the NFC Central Division title with a 13-3 record. That season, tailback Anthony Thomas earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after setting a Bears' rookie rushing record with 1,183 yards, and quarterback Jim Miller had his most productive season as a pro.

Under Shoop's direction in 2002, the Bears offense produced Pro Bowl wide receiver Marty Booker, who became the first Chicago receiver to earn all-star game honors since 1971.

Prior to joining the Bears, Shoop spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he began his NFL coaching career at the age of 25. Shoop was an offensive quality control assistant for the Panthers in 1995-96 where he was a member of a staff that led the team to the NFC Championship Game in 1996. He was then promoted to quarterbacks coach, serving in that capacity for Carolina from 1997-98.

Shoop began his coaching career as a volunteer quarterbacks coach at Dartmouth in 1991, then served as a graduate assistant at Vanderbilt from 1992-94, where he also earned a master's degree in education.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., Shoop graduated from the University of the South in 1991, where he played quarterback for four seasons.

Shoop and his wife, the Rev. Dr. Marcia Mount Shoop, have a son, Sidney, and a daughter, Mary Elizabeth. Shoop's brother, Bob, is the defensive coordinator at William & Mary College.

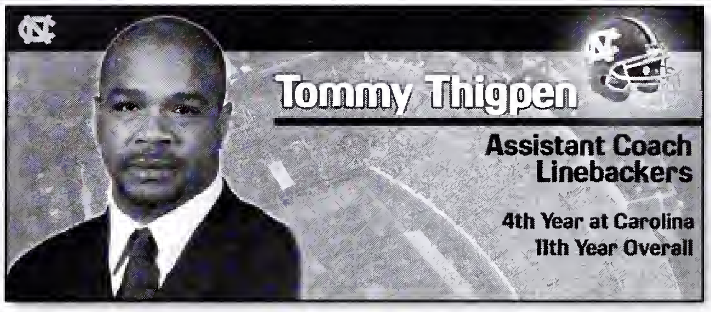
ASSISTANT COACH PROFILE - TOMMY THIGPEN



A former All-Atlantic Coast Conference linebacker at North Carolina, Tommy Thigpen enters his fourth season as the Tar Heels' linebackers coach. An exceptional recruiter, Thigpen was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters in 2007 by Rivals.com.

Thigpen has tutored the team's leading tacklers in each of his three seasons in Chapel Hill, including Durell Mapp, who led the team in 2006 and 2007. Mapp, who came to Carolina as a walk-on, left as one of the most prolific tacklers in recent Tar Heel history and signed an NFL free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers. He finished second in the ACC in tackles per game and was a second-team All-ACC selection.

Thigpen also coached Carolina's 2005 leading tacklers, Tommy Richardson and Larry Edwards. Richardson was named honorable-mention All-ACC, while Edwards had his best two seasons under Thigpen, leading the team in tackles for losses in 2005 and 2006.

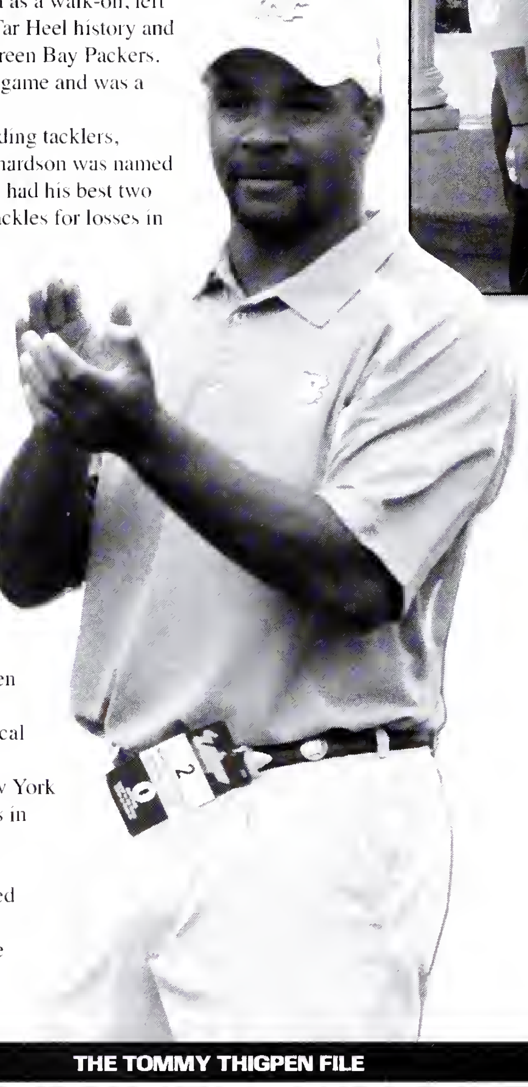
Thigpen was hired from Illinois, where he coached for two years and had been asked to remain on Ron Zook's Illini staff. He was the cornerbacks coach in 2003 and the linebackers coach in 2004.

Thigpen achieved accolades as a Parade All-America and Virginia Defensive Player of the Year at Potomac High School in Dumfries, Va.

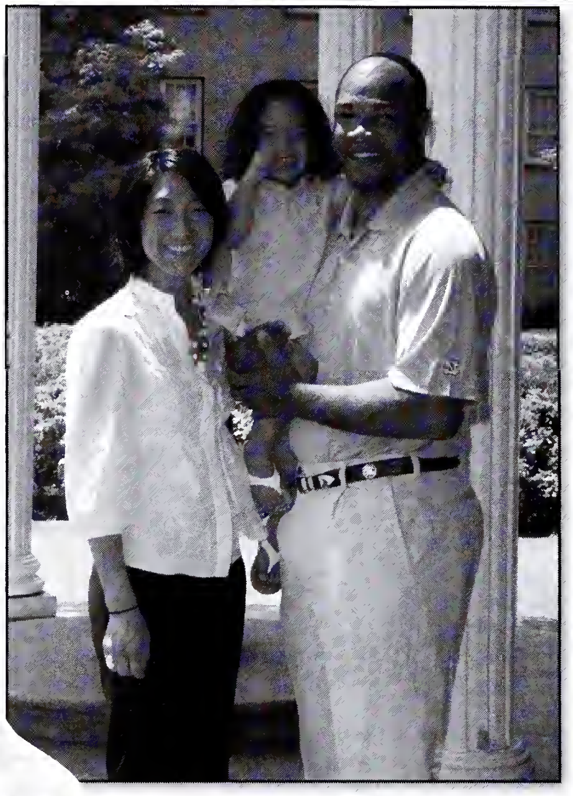
A four-year letterwinner at North Carolina from 1989-92, Thigpen was a three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference linebacker, earning first-team honors in 1991. He was co-captain of the 1992 team that went 9-3 and beat Mississippi State in the Peach Bowl, the first of seven straight bowl games for the Tar Heels in the 1990s. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Carolina.

Thigpen played professionally for the New York Giants in 1993-94 and the Barcelona Dragons in 1995-96.

He began his coaching career as a UNC graduate assistant in 1998-99. He then coached linebackers at Tennessee State in 2000. In 2001-02, he coached cornerbacks and was the special teams coordinator at Bowling Green State.



At Bowling Green, Thigpen helped coach one of the Mid-American Conference's top defenses, as the Falcons forced 27 turnovers to lead the MAC in turnover margin in 2002. BGSU also finished second in the MAC in pass efficiency defense. Thigpen's special teams also were impressive, blocking seven punts and a potential game-winning field goal attempt by Western Michigan to preserve the Falcons' early undefeated season.



The Thigpen Family: Jacinda, Asia and Tammy

Thigpen is married to the former Jacinda Webb and the couple has a daughter, Asia. In May, he was selected by the Atlantic Coast Conference to attend the Minority Coaches Forum in Phoenix.

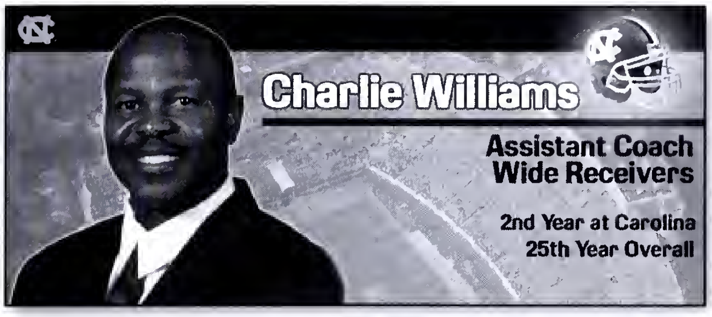
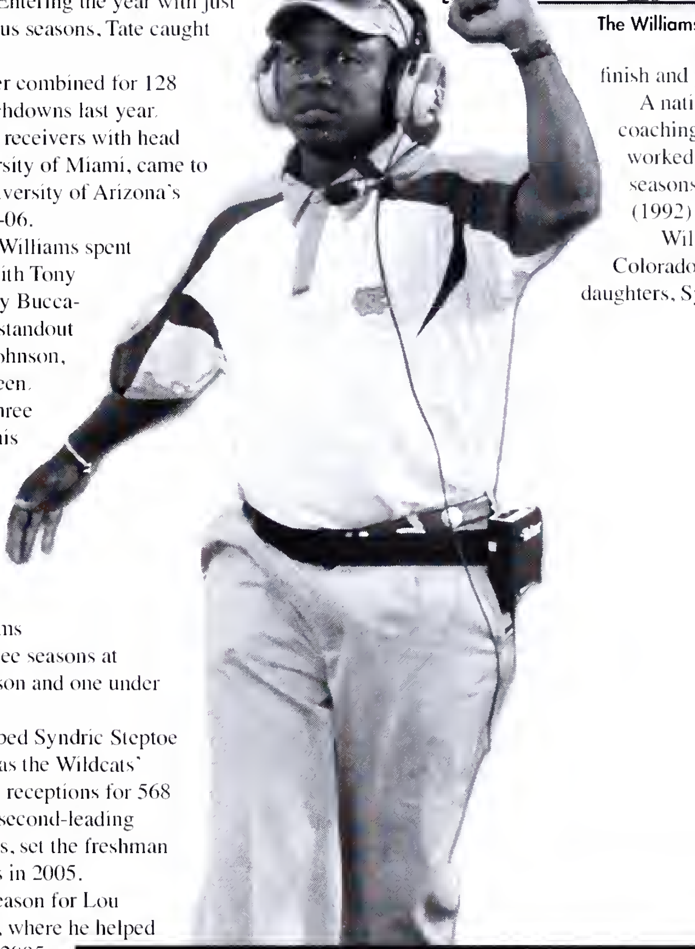
ASSISTANT COACH PROFILE - CHARLIE WILLIAMS



The Williams Family: Lisa, Gregory, Sydney, Jada and Charlie



Charlie Williams enters his second season as North Carolina's wide receivers coach.

In his first year in Chapel Hill, Williams coached wideout Hakeem Nicks to a record-setting season. Nicks, a second-team All-ACC selection, set the school single-season mark with 74 receptions for 958 yards and five touchdowns.

Nicks' teammate Brandon Tate became a big play receiver under Williams guidance, averaging a team-high 19.2 yards per catch and scoring five TDs. Entering the year with just five receptions in the two previous seasons, Tate caught 25 balls for 479 yards.

Nicks, Tate and Brooks Foster combined for 128 catches, 1,854 yards and 12 touchdowns last year.

Williams, who coached wide receivers with head coach Butch Davis at the University of Miami, came to Carolina after serving as the University of Arizona's wide receivers coach from 2004-06.

A 23-year coaching veteran, Williams spent six seasons as receivers coach with Tony Dungy and the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2001, tutoring standout performers such as Keyshawn Johnson, Reidel Anthony and Jacquez Green. Johnson was chosen to play in three Pro Bowls while Williams was his position coach. The 2000 and 2001 Tampa Bay offenses set several franchise offensive records, and the team advanced to the playoffs four times during his tenure.

Prior to his NFL stint, Williams was wide receivers coach for three seasons at Miami, two under Dennis Erickson and one under Davis.

At Arizona, Williams developed Syndric Steptoe into a big-play threat. Steptoe was the Wildcats' leading receiver in 2006 with 55 receptions for 568 yards. Mike Thomas, Arizona's second-leading receiver last year with 50 catches, set the freshman school record with 52 receptions in 2005.

Williams also coached one season for Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 2003, where he helped develop Troy Williamson into a 2005 first-round NFL draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

In 1993 and 1994, Williams coached Chris T. Jones, who led the Hurricanes in receiving both years and had a total of 90 catches for 1,462 yards. The 1993 Hurricanes (9-3) played Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl and Jones led Miami with six catches for 98 yards.

Williams was part of the 1994 Miami staff that led the Canes to a 10-2 finish and played Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Williams began his coaching career at Long Beach City College in 1984. He worked two years at New Mexico State (1986-87), four seasons at TCU (1988-91) and one year at Minnesota (1992) before joining the Miami program.

Williams played two years as a defensive back at Colorado State (1978-79). He and his wife Lisa, have two daughters, Sydney and Jada, and a son, Gregory.

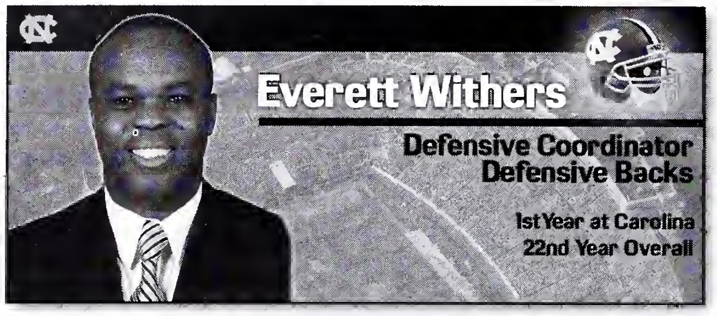
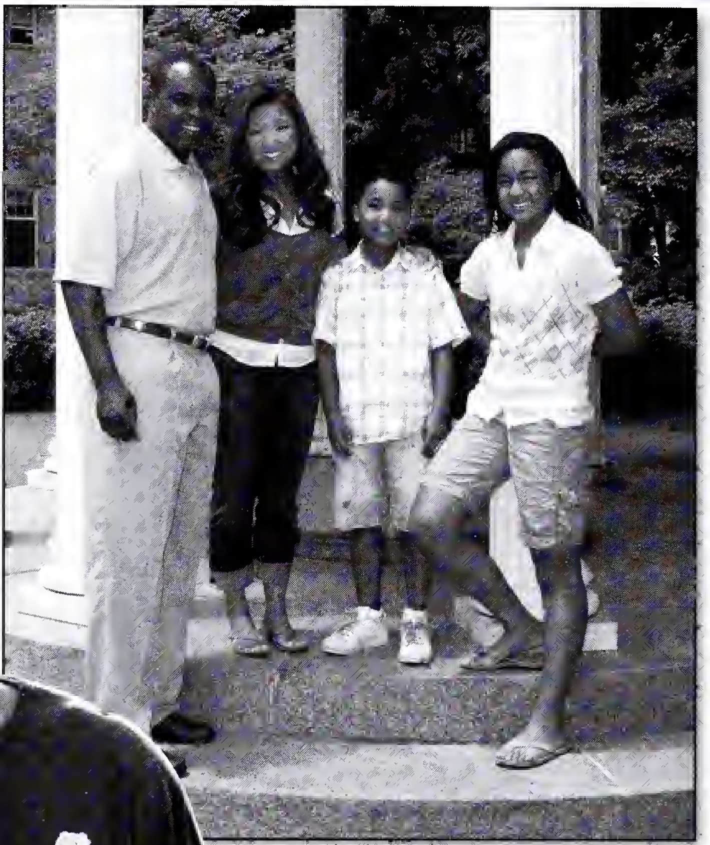
ASSISTANT COACH PROFILE - EVERETT WITHERS



Everett Withers

Defensive Coordinator
Defensive Backs

1st Year at Carolina
22nd Year Overall



The Withers Family: Everett, Kara, Pierce and Tia

Charlotte, N.C., native Everett Withers enters his first year as North Carolina's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Withers came to North Carolina after serving one season as the University of Minnesota's defensive coordinator in 2007.

Withers spent six seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2001-06 under head coach Jeff Fisher. From 2002-04, Withers helped the Titans defense tally 57 interceptions, which was the most for the franchise over a three-year period since 1993-95. The 57 interceptions also ranked fourth in the AFC and eighth overall during that time. The Titans totaled 21 picks in 2004, including 16 by the secondary.

In 2002, Withers directed a revamped secondary that added safeties Lance Schulters and rookie Tank Williams. The new arrangement helped the defense earn a top 10 ranking and Schulters' six interceptions were the most by a Titans safety since 1993. Withers also developed Andre Dyson into a starter as a rookie in 2001 and helped him total 16 interceptions during his four-year Titan career, including six his final season.

Prior to working with the Titans, Withers was defensive backs coach under Mack Brown at Texas from 1998-2000, where he guided a Longhorns secondary which improved from 75th in the nation in pass defense in 1997 (132.7 efficiency rating) to first in the nation in 2000 (88.02). Withers is credited with helping a young corps of defensive backs improve in a number of statistical categories.

Withers joined the Longhorns after three seasons (1995-97) as defensive coordinator at Louisville. His 1996 defensive unit ranked fourth nationally in both total defense (235.8) and rushing defense (81.1) and led the NCAA in forced turnovers (41). While at Louisville, Withers helped current New York Giants All-Pro cornerback Sam Madison earn All-America honors for the Cardinals.

Withers' first National Football League experience came with the New Orleans Saints where he worked as defensive quality control in 1994. Prior to his experience with the Saints, Withers was defensive backs coach at Southern Mississippi for two seasons (1992-93) and outside linebackers coach at Tulane in 1991. The first three years of Withers' coaching career came at Austin Peay, where he was defensive coordinator (1988-89) and special teams/wide receivers coach (1990).

Withers earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He was also a standout defensive back and captain for the Mountaineers from 1981-85. Withers and his wife, Kara, have two children, Tia and Pierce.

Corey Holliday

Associate Athletic Director Football Administration

8th Year at Carolina
UNC Letterwinner, 1990-93

Corey Holliday, who played for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, is in his eighth year with the football program. He was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Administration in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Dick Baddour and head coach Butch Davis.

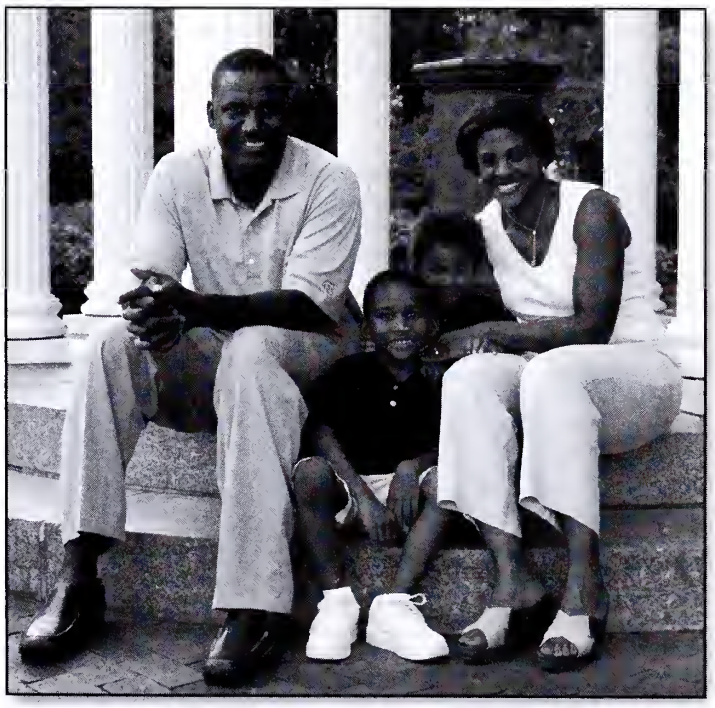
Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday still holds the Carolina career record for most receiving yards (2,447) and he is third in career receptions. Holliday caught a pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93 and was a team co-captain as a junior and senior.

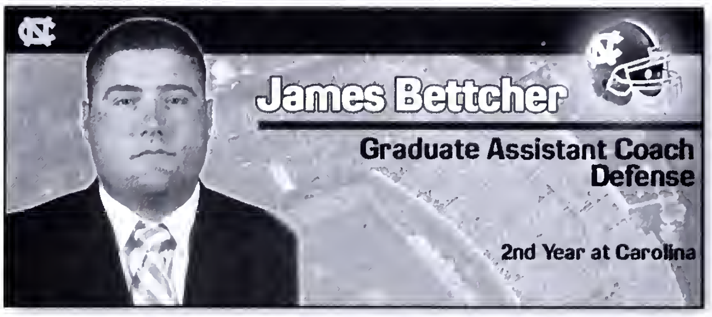
Holliday played four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC's Educational Foundation, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

He holds two degrees from North Carolina, including a B.S. in Business Administration in 1993 and a Master's in Sports Administration in 1997. Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.



The Holliday Family: Corey, Christapher, Nichalas and Angela



James Bettcher

Graduate Assistant Coach Defense

2nd Year at Carolina

James Bettcher begins his second season with the Tar Heels and first as the graduate assistant coach on defense. Last year, Bettcher worked in the Carolina football video department.

Bettcher came to Carolina after serving two seasons as the defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State from 2005-06 under head coach Greg Brannon. Bettcher coached safeties his first season and defensive tackles in his second. While at Bowling Green, he coached first-team all-conference performer Devon Parks, who led the team in sacks.

Bettcher began his coaching career at the University of St. Francis (Ft. Wayne, Ind.) where he served as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator from 2002-04. St. Francis played for two NAIA national championships, won 30 consecutive regular season games and captured three conference championships during his time as an assistant coach.

A four-year starter at center, Bettcher played at St. Francis from 1998-2001. He was a two-sport standout, twice earning all-america honors in football and six times in track and field in the shot put and discus.

A native of Lakeville, Ind., Bettcher graduated with a degree in business management and a minor in accounting. He and his wife, Erica, reside in Durham.

Brad Davis

Graduate Assistant Coach Offense

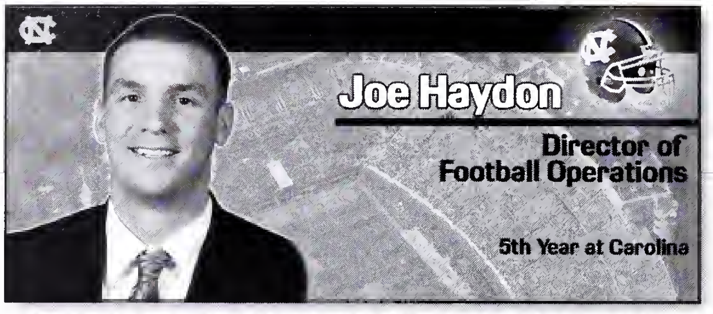
1st Year at Carolina

Brad Davis is in his first season as a North Carolina graduate assistant coach. Davis, who will be working on the offensive side of the ball, comes to Carolina after serving two years on the Texas A&M staff as the defensive line graduate assistant coach.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Davis played guard and center at Oklahoma from 1998-02 where he helped the Sooners win the national championship in 2000 vs. Florida State. He was originally recruited to Oklahoma by Carolina offensive line coach Sam Pittman. Davis earned three letters and was a two-year starter for the Sooners who won two Big 12 titles during his career.

Davis earned a degree in social studies education from Oklahoma and his master's in sports management from Texas A&M. He began his coaching career at Southern University Laboratory School as the offensive line coach in 2003-04. He left Southern to become the offensive line coach at Doane College in Nebraska for the 2005 season.

Davis, 27, and his wife, Anecia, reside in Durham.



Joe Haydon

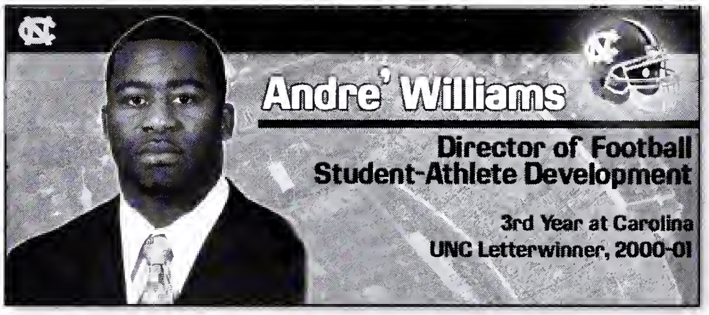
Director of Football Operations

5th Year at Carolina

Joe Haydon enters his fifth year with the Tar Heels and third as the team's director of operations. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate school. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006. Haydon, 30, resides in Durham.



Andre' Williams

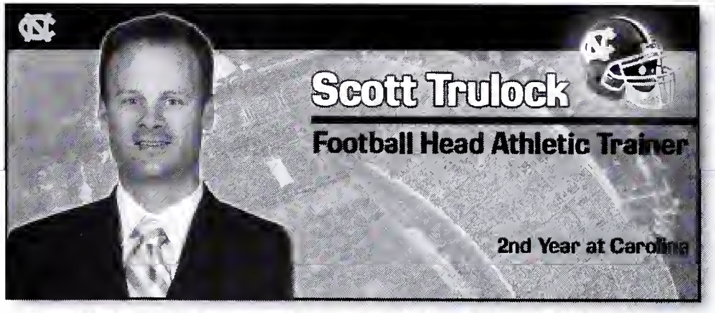
Director of Football Student-Athlete Development

3rd Year at Carolina
UNC Letterwinner, 2000-01

Andre' Williams, a former Tar Heel tailback, is in his third year as Carolina's Director of Football Student-Athlete Development. In that role, Williams works with the players in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing, community service projects and as a liaison with the academic support program and compliance office.

Williams lettered at Carolina in 2000 and 2001 before a back injury forced him to stop playing football. He was the Tar Heels' leading rusher in 2001, when Carolina went 8-5 and won the Peach Bowl over Auburn. He also earned Academic All-ACC honors in 2001.

Williams graduated from Carolina in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in management and society. He worked one year for the Atlantic Coast Conference office before returning to Chapel Hill to earn a Master's degree in sports administration. Williams, 27, is married to the former Shalya Higginbotham.



Scott Trulock

Football Head Athletic Trainer

2nd Year at Carolina

Scott Trulock is in his second season as the team's Head Athletic Trainer for Football, where he heads a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants. Trulock and his staff work to keep Carolina's football student-athletes healthy and to rehabilitate any injuries quickly and successfully.

Trulock came to Carolina after spending 11 years in the National Football League. Most recently, he served as the assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos on Mike Shanahan's staff from 2004-06. Previously, he was the director of rehabilitation in Tampa Bay under head coach Jon Gruden from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when Tampa Bay knocked off the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Trulock began his career as assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98 and also worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001.

While working in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFTAS). Within the Society, he served as the director of research for the PFATS Research and Education Foundation. In this role, he was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. In addition, Trulock has presented at many local, state, and national meetings.

The return to Carolina is a homecoming of sorts for Trulock, as he received his Masters Degree in Athletic Training from UNC in 1996. The position with the Football program presented him the opportunity to re-join one of the top Sports Medicine programs in the country. Actively involved in research since his days as a student at Carolina, Trulock utilizes the full complement of Physicians, Faculty, and Researches in the Sports Medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Trulock earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine at Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

Goldsboro native and Tar Heel alumnus Dick Baddour is in his 12th year as Director of Athletics and his 42nd at the University of North Carolina. Baddour directs one of the most highly acclaimed and respected athletic programs in the country, known for its commitment to academic integrity and competitive excellence in men's and women's sports.

Baddour currently has the third-longest tenure as athletic director in the ACC and is one of three to serve as athletic director at Carolina for 10 or more years since the league was formed in 1954.

The Tar Heels have won 58 ACC championships during his tenure, 11 more than Duke, which is second. Nineteen different UNC men's and women's sports have won conference titles during his tenure. UNC has led the league in team championships in seven of the last 11 seasons. Last year, field hockey won the national championship with an unbeaten season, men's basketball won its second consecutive ACC title and played in the Final Four, the women's basketball team went undefeated in ACC play and won its fourth consecutive ACC championship and the baseball team advanced to the College World Series for an ACC record-tying third straight year.

The Tar Heels led all ACC schools in 2008-09 with a 14th place finish nationally in the US Sports Academy Directors' Cup. Carolina has averaged an eighth-place finish in Baddour's 11 years at the helm (the Directors' Cup measures NCAA postseason performance). UNC has finished first among ACC schools in the Directors' Cup nine times in the last 11 years. At least 23 of 28 Tar Heel teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition in each of the last three seasons.

During Baddour's tenure, the Tar Heels have won national championships in men's basketball, men's and women's soccer and field hockey, won two football bowl games and had numerous Top 10 national finishes in Olympic Sports. UNC has won 23 individual national titles in the last seven seasons.

Baddour has hired head coaches in eight sports, overseen renovations or created plans to update virtually every facility in the athletic complex, expanded the direction and staffing for student-athlete services and worked tirelessly to set the program on sound financial footing.

Baddour emphasizes academic achievement and the overall student experience. Last year, 295 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, 303 earned Dean's List honors, and every program fared well in the NCAA's APR. Baddour initiated the concept for the Carolina Leadership Academy, a training program for student-athletes, coaches and administrators, which has completed its fourth year. The program develops leadership skills through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources. Carolina's coaches consider the program an overwhelming success and a model for schools across the nation.

Baddour has made it a top priority to ensure the athletic department stays financially strong. The department and Rams Club helped to raise $245 million over the last eight seasons in support of the Carolina First campaign, increasing the scholarship endowment to $190 million. He worked out funding for several facility enhancement projects, scholarships and operating budgets. He negotiated partnerships with Nike to outfit the athletic program, with Learfield Communications to direct UNC's multi-media properties, and with Wachovia for on-site sponsorship in the Smith Center. The Nike deal was widely praised as one of the most socially conscious contracts of its kind with respect to global labor issues. With regard to the Wachovia contract, Baddour was credited with working diligently over several years to balance the Carolina culture and the need for sound financial partnerships.

The athletic department and Rams Club moved into the Ernie Williamson Athletics Center in December 2007 and the Carolina Basketball Museum opened its doors a month later. More than 25,000 visitors toured the museum in its first six months. Currently, he is overseeing major facility projects designed for Kenan Stadium, Boshamer Stadium, Carmichael Auditorium, sports medicine and wrestling. Kenan Stadium will undergo a multi-year renovation that will begin after the 2008 season; Boshamer was closed for renovations last year, but is scheduled to open again in 2009; and Carmichael will be closed for renovations throughout the upcoming season. All three of those projects mark the greatest period of refurbishments since each respective facility was first built.

Baddour began his UNC career in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. He served as Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement.

Baddour spent 11 years as John Swofford's top assistant before being named the Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In 2001, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have three children. Allen, a superior court judge for Orange and Chatham Counties, and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Henry and Jack; David, an attorney with RTP-based Womble-Carlyle, and his wife, Carey, have two daughters, Lauren and Julia, and son, Johnathan; Jennifer, a family therapist in private practice in Cary, is married to Kevin Snead.

Holden Thorp

CHANCELLOR

One of our own begins with ambitious plans for serving North Carolina and beyond

HOLDEN THORP, one of Carolina's own, took office July 1 as the University's 10th chancellor—a job he calls the best in American public higher education—following a national search. He will be installed on University Day, Oct. 12.

Thorp, dean of UNC's College of Arts and Sciences since July 2007, succeeded James Moeser, who last September announced plans to step down June 30th after eight years and, after a year's research leave, return as a professor.

A 1986 UNC graduate, Thorp, 43, has rapidly progressed through several leadership posts since joining the faculty 15 years ago. He quickly became an award-winning teacher and nationally recognized researcher, rising to the level of Kenan Professor in 2005.

A native of Fayetteville, Thorp also chaired the highly regarded department of chemistry, where he has been a full professor since 1999. He was faculty director of a fundraising effort attracting about $17 million for the Carolina Physical Science Complex as part of the Carolina First Campaign.

"We have so much work ahead of us. Our to-do list is nothing less than the greatest problems of our time: Cure diseases, and get those cures to all the people who need them. Find and invent clean energy. Inspire students in our public schools. Feed seven billion people. Describe the world, and replace conflict with understanding."

From 2001 to 2005, Thorp directed the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center, guiding efforts to expand the planetarium's original emphasis to become a comprehensive science education center for North Carolina.

Thorp has published more than 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA. He invented technology for electronic DNA chips that is the basis of 19 issued or pending U.S. patents. One invention provides a less expensive blood test to determine if prospective parents carry the cystic fibrosis gene. For his DNA chip technology, Thorp was recognized as one of the Top Innovators of 2001 by Fortune Small Business magazine.

"North Carolina, in spite of the difficulties we face, promises a great future. Why? Because the idea of a research university — a place where research and teaching are done by the same people — is a bold and audacious idea, the very fabric of American prosperity and innovation. There's one idea that's even better than a research university — and that's a public research university."

Thorp received his bachelor of science degree with highest honors in chemistry from UNC in 1986. He earned a doctorate in chemistry from the California Institute of Technology in 1989, and started his faculty career at N.C. State University. ■

THE RAMS CLUB

IT'S THERE. SOMETIMES IT'S SUBTLE. OTHER TIMES IT'S AS OBVIOUS AS THE SKY ABOVE.

It can be in the tie that you wear to work, or the swoosh on your tennis shoes. It can be in the paint you choose for your family room, or on the car that you drive. It can be in the flag you hang from your front porch, or that championship t-shirt you wear to the gym. It's in all of us. We show it in different ways, but eventually it comes out – that streak of Carolina Blue deep inside us that drives our passion for the Tar Heels.

When you think about it, you likely Show Your Colors in many different ways – from the clothes you wear, to the items you'll find at home and in the office, to the way you get excited putting on that lucky hat before heading out to cheer for the Heels.

And maybe it's in the pride you feel when Carolina student-athletes excel like few others in college athletics. You can Show Your Colors in a life-changing way by being a part of The Rams Club – offering outstanding young men and women an opportunity to represent the University of North Carolina in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Your support through The Rams Club is integral in providing athletic scholarships to Carolina student-athletes, as well as outstanding facilities in which they can train and compete at the top level of college athletics.

^Rameses level and above may purchase as many football season tickets as wanted (and are available). The indicated number of seats may be protected by location annually. Only the number indicated will be based on member priority.

+ Upon completion of a scholarship, Half Scholarship donors must maintain a Super Ram membership; Full Scholarship donors must maintain a Coaches Circle membership.

ANNUAL FUND

Donations through the Annual Fund offers The Rams Club the opportunity to meet immediate funding needs-primarily the funds needed to bridge the difference between the endowment's yield and the actual scholarship costs and other important projects for Carolina's student-athletes.

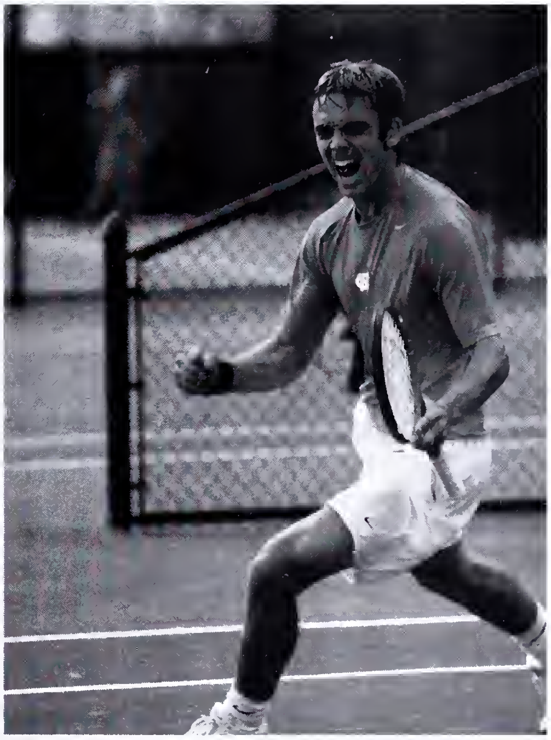
Scholarship ENDOWMENT

The Rams Club's Scholarship Endowment Trust is the largest athletic scholarship endowment in the nation. The Scholarship Endowment Trust is built upon gifts from Carolina supporters who have endowed Full or Half Scholarships in support of student-athletes which provide in perpetuity the support to a broad-based athletics program.

CAROLINA forever

The Planned Giving Society of The Rams Club

As the Rams Club's planned giving program, Carolina Forever offers donors an opportunity to make a lasting impact by involving Carolina Athletics in their estate planning. Carolina Forever's mission is to insure that the university continues to provide in perpetuity the unique opportunity to experience what it means to be a Tar Heel student-athlete in a broad-based athletics program.



SPORTS ENDOWMENTS

The Sport Endowments program provides additional funding for the operating budgets of each of the 28 sports. Donors can make gifts to an individual sport with the yield from that trust made available to the appropriate coach for use in budget-enhancing activities like recruiting, team travel, assistant coaches' salaries and more. With the gifts designated into an endowment, these gifts will provide a continuous stream of usable income in perpetuity.

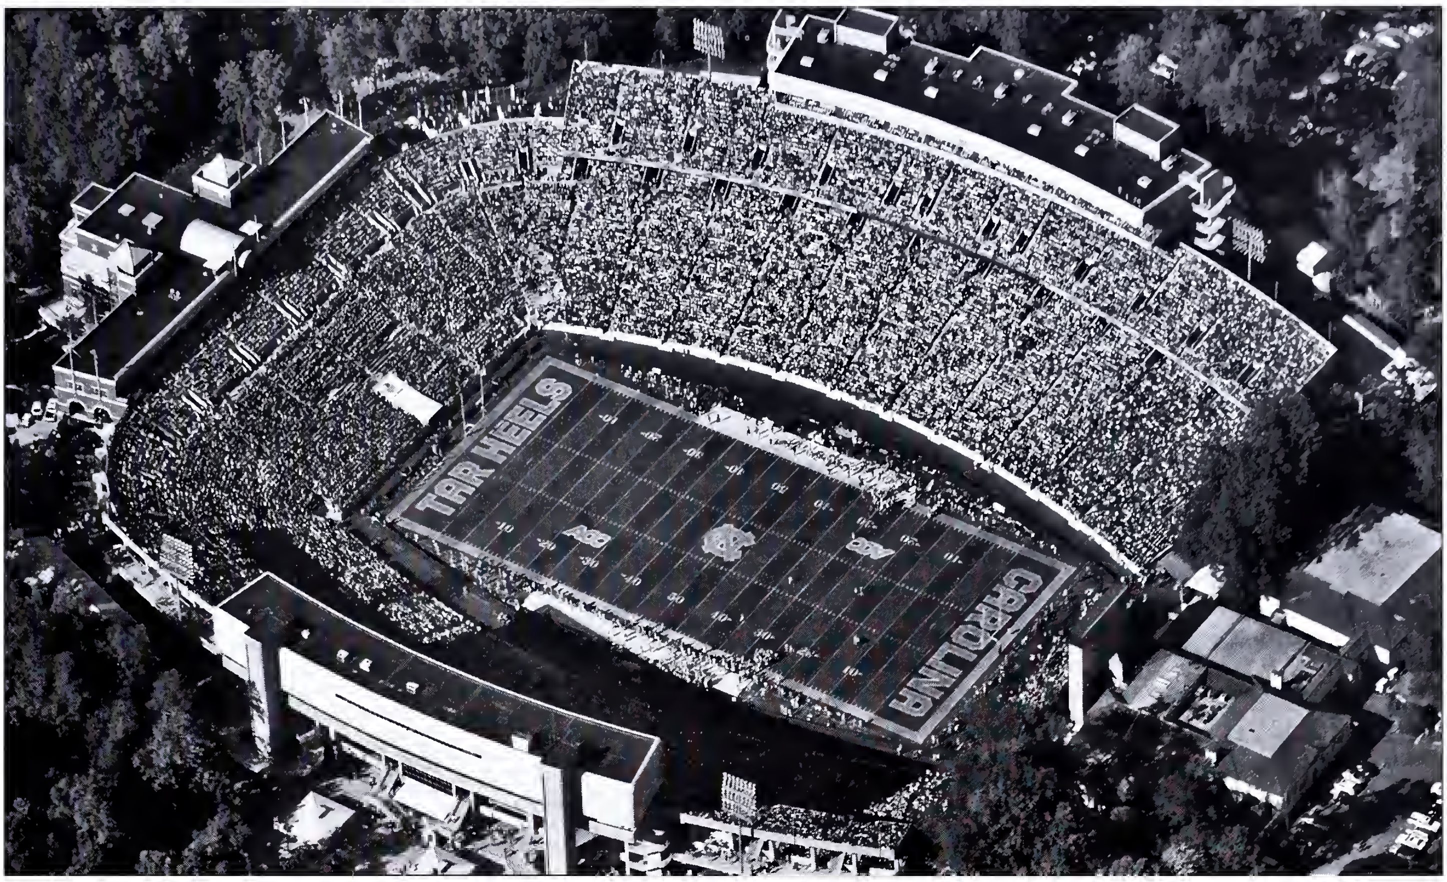
KENAN STADIUM - HOME OF THE TAR HEELS



Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 60,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. One national sports magazine rated Kenan one of the five best places in America to watch a college football game. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact. The addition of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the North Side Stadium Preferred Seating Box in 1997 have further enhanced the stadium's status as a campus landmark.

The Kenan Football Center houses the Carolina football program, including the locker rooms, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The players who have been honored by placing their names and numbers on display in the stadium are also featured in the Hall of Honor. Special plaques, flags and an audio-visual presentation on each player are highlighted.

The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, ties the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center, making fan movement around the stadium much easier. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The renovation and expansion project was financed through a combination of private contributions through the Educational Foundation and bonded indebtedness from the athletic department through the sale of revenue-generating bonds. The Educational Foundation and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The most recent additions to Kenan Stadium are two ribbon videoboards on the facade of the North and South side upper levels. In 2003, a $2 million scoreboard at the east end of the stadium was added. The scoreboard was financed through an agreement with Learfield Communications, UNC's multi-media rights holder. The $2-million-figure includes the cost of the video board, installation and a new public address system. Over 40 new speakers were added throughout Kenan Stadium.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box are the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf includes an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the North Side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 249-162-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in the third game played there as Carolina whipped Wake Forest, 65-0, in the 1928 season opener.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997 and 60,000 in 1998.

At the East end of the stadium is the Kenan Fieldhouse, home of the Student-Athlete Development Center. A 20,000 square foot building, it is a one-of-a-kind facility. For study purposes, it contains a language lab, video room, computer lab, theatre-style lecture hall, several reading rooms and numerous tutorial rooms. UNC's academic counseling staff has the advantage of using the most modern techniques in assisting student-athletes.

Capacity crowds have come to be expected at Kenan. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record-shattering crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

2007 REVIEW

DAVIS COMPLETES FIRST SEASON

North Carolina completed its first season under head coach Butch Davis with a 20-14 overtime victory over Duke on Nov. 24. The Tar Heels finished 4-8 overall and 3-5 and fourth in the Coastal Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Highlights of the season included:

- Sophomore wide receiver Hakeem Nicks set the single-season school record with 74 receptions, eclipsing the previous mark of 71 by Jarwarski Pollock in 2003. Nicks finished the season with 74 catches for 958 yards, which ranks third on the UNC single-season list.
- Senior place-kicker Connor Barth set the school record with 19 consecutive field goals and established the UNC career record with 54 made field goals. Barth made 30 of his last 33 career attempts, only missing from 49, 52 and 63 yards.
- Junior kick returner Brandon Tate broke the ACC career record for kickoff return yards with 2,383 yards. With one season remaining, Tate has a chance to eclipse the NCAA kickoff return mark of 2,922 by Jeff Liggon of Tulane (1993-96). Tate also set UNC single-season records 39 kickoff returns and 939 kickoff return yards.
- Redshirt freshman T.J. Yates set the single-season school record for most passing yards with, 2,655. Yates also set UNC freshman marks for completions and attempts.
- North Carolina's defense improved nearly 60 positions in the NCAA rankings, moving from 92nd in 2006 to 35th in 2007. Carolina allowed 368.2 yards in 2006 and 349.8 in 2007.
- The Tar Heels nearly doubled its tackle for loss totals from a year ago, including 11 additional sacks. In 2007, UNC posted 83 tackles for loss and 34 sacks. The previous year, Carolina had 44 tackles for loss and 23 sacks.
- Durell Mapp had 132 tackles, ranking second in the ACC and 10th in the nation in tackles per game.
- Freshman Greg Little converted from wide receiver to tailback for the final two games of the season and rushed for 243 yards (121.5 avg) on 50 carries and scored twice. He became the first Tar Heel in 2007 to top 100 yards rushing when he posted 154 yards on 26 carries vs Duke. His 25-yard run on the first play of Carolina's overtime possession gave the Tar Heels a 20-14 win.

ATTENDANCE AT HIGHEST LEVEL IN A DECADE

North Carolina sold out five of its six home football games in 2007 and averaged 57,417 fans, the most in more than a decade. Average attendance was up nearly 18 percent from the 2006 season when Carolina drew 48,857 per game.

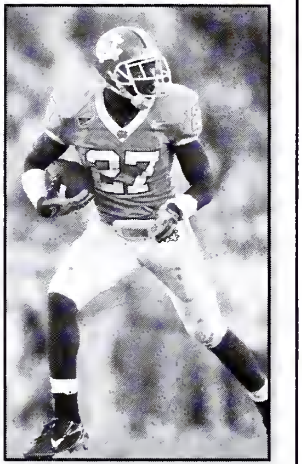
"The fan support this year was outstanding," said head coach Butch Davis. "I appreciate all the support of the Tar Heel fans. In particular, the students in the Tar Pit did a great job getting our players excited before kickoff and were a inspiration to our players and staff. We received positive feedback from prospects visiting campus and from those watching on TV on how impressive the student section and our fans were this year."

On Oct. 13 vs. South Carolina, the Tar Heels drew 61,000, the second-largest crowd in school history behind only the 1997 matchup with Florida State (62,000). Capacity of Kenan Stadium is 60,000, but bleachers were brought in for two games this year against Miami and South Carolina.

Carolina's average attendance over the last 10 years:

1998: 55,410
1999: 44,167
2000: 50,500
2001: 52,583
2002: 50,292
2003: 47,133
2004: 52,458
2005: 51,667
2006: 48,857
2007: 57,417

WILLIAMS NAMED ACC DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR



North Carolina safety Deunta Williams was voted the 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Atlantic Coast Conference Sports Media Association. A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Williams received 48 votes to outdistance teammate and fellow defensive back Charles Brown. Williams led the Tar Heels with three interceptions and had 57 tackles, two pass breakups and one forced fumble.

"It's a great honor and I thank God, my teammates and my coaches for granting me the opportunity to win this award," says Williams. "I was able to make the transition to defense this year and our coaches gave us great game plans every week to put me in a position to make a plays."

Williams garnered one vote in the ACC Rookie of the Year honors, which was won by Wake Forest tailback Josh Adams. Carolina quarterback T.J. Yates finished second to Adams and was second in the offensive rookie voting. Yates set UNC's single-season passing yards record and was third in the league in total offense and passing yards per game.

In addition to Brown, Carolina defensive tackle Marvin Austin (2) and linebacker Quan Sturdivant (1) also received votes for defensive rookie honors.

SEASON DEFINED BY CLOSE LOSSES

North Carolina lost six games in 2007 by a combined total of 24 points. The Tar Heels lost by three at East Carolina, two vs. Virginia, seven at Virginia Tech, six vs. South Carolina, four at NC State and two at Georgia Tech. Four times the Tar Heels lost by four or fewer points (two to Virginia and Georgia Tech, three to ECU and four to the Wolfpack).

Carolina's eight losses were decided a combined total of 78 points (9.75 avg). In comparison, last season the Tar Heels lost nine games by a total of 168 points (18.7 avg.).

Carolina 37, James Madison 14
Sept. 1, 2007
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- North Carolina got off to a fast start under new coach Butch Davis, getting three touchdown passes from first-time starter T.J. Yates to beat James Madison 37-14.

Yates threw for 218 yards -- including a 65-yard score on his first college throw -- for the Tar Heels, who won their season opener for just the third time in a decade. Brooks Foster caught two touchdown passes, while redshirt freshman Anthony Elzy ran for a pair of short scores.

North Carolina scored the first 24 points and never was threatened by James Madison (0-1), a Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) program. It all started with Yates, a redshirt freshman, finding Foster on the third play for the long score that enthralled a sellout crowd still teeming with the optimism that began with Davis' arrival last fall.

Davis, who rebuilt Miami into a powerhouse before spending four seasons with the Cleveland Browns, had to like what he saw from his new team. Despite plenty of youth and inexperience, the Tar Heels were efficient on offense while their defense -- long a sore point in six struggle-filled seasons under coach John Bunting -- showed few chinks until the Tar Heels were in firm control against an overmatched opponent.

Rodney Landers threw a touchdown pass for the Dukes, while Eugene Holloman ran for 82 yards.

East Carolina 34, Carolina 31
Greenville, N.C.

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) -- North Carolina quarterback T.J. Yates threw for 344 yards and three touchdowns in Carolina's 34-31 loss at East Carolina. It was only East Carolina's second victory in 11 tries -- the last coming 32 years ago -- against the Tar Heels (1-1).

In a game that went back and forth, Carolina seemed poised to take a late lead, but the Tar Heels botched a 52-yard field goal attempt with a poor hold and ECU drove down for the winning field goal as time expired.

ECU quarterback Patrick Pinkney threw for 406 yards and three touchdowns in his first start and Ben Hartman shook off three missed field goals to kick the winner on the final play. Chris Johnson added two touchdown catches and a rushing score for the Pirates (1-1), who managed to hold on for a thrilling victory in their home opener against their instate rival.

Hartman missed field goal attempts of 30, 32 and 37 yards before nailing the 39-yarder on the final play.

Brandon Tate scored three touchdowns for North Carolina, which suffered its first loss under new coach Butch Davis.

The teams traded scores almost the entire way. Tate's 58-yard punt return for a score on the final play of the third quarter sent the game into the final period tied at 31. Then came two missed field goals by Hartman, who hit the left upright on a 32-yard try on the Pirates' first possession of the fourth and missed a 37-yarder for the lead with about 3 minutes to play.

On their final possession, ECU drove to North Carolina's 21-yard line. The Pirates then called timeout with 2 seconds left and Hartman made a 39-yarder for the victory.

Virginia 22, Carolina 20
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -Cedric Peerman shredded the North Carolina defense for 186 yards and a touchdown, and Chris Gould tied a school record with five field goals Saturday as Virginia held off North Carolina, 22-20.

Gould's kicks included a 48-yarder in the third quarter that was initially ruled no good by officials under the crossbar. Coach Al Groh challenged the call and it was overturned. That gave Virginia (2-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) a 19-7 lead.

But North Carolina (1-2, 0-1 ACC) shook off the reversal and drew to 19-14 when T.J. Yates hit Hakeem Nicks on a 53-yard scoring play. Nicks slipped one tackler and dragged another Virginia defender about 7 yards into the end zone.

The Tar Heels forced a Virginia punt and moved from their 20 to the Cavaliers 41. But defensive end Chris Long snatched Yates' pass out of the air and ran 25 yards to the North Carolina 30.

Two holding penalties and a delay of game stalled Virginia's drive and Gould kicked a 32-yard field goal with 8:56 left.

North Carolina rallied from a second turnover and marched 85 yards to score on Yates' 2-yard pass to Richard Quinn with 1:57 left. But Yates' 2-point conversion pass was batted down by Nate Collins at the line of scrimmage.

The victory snapped Virginia's four-game road losing streak in the ACC.

Peerman ran 1 yard for a first-quarter score. Gould had a career-best 51-yard field goal in the period, and added kicks of 28 and 37 yards in the second quarter before Yates hit Nicks on a 4-yard scoring pass with 22 seconds left in the half.

Yates has nine touchdown passes in three games, the best performance by a North Carolina quarterback to start a season.

South Florida 37, Carolina 10
Sept. 22, 2007
Tampa, Fla.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) - The South Florida Bulls validated their first Top 25 ranking Saturday with a 37-10 victory over North Carolina.

Matt Grothe led long touchdown drives on USF's first two possessions, while the Bulls' swarming defense forced four turnovers and kept the young, rebuilding Tar Heels out of the end zone until just over a minute remained.

Grothe completed 17 of 30 passes for 230 yards and one touchdown before being replaced by backup Grant Gregory in the fourth quarter. The Bulls (3-0) also rushed for 194 yards and outgained North Carolina (1-3) 428-164 overall.

The Bulls marched 78 yards after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Mike Ford's 5-yard touchdown run, then moved 83 yards in 10 plays on their next possession to go up 14-0 on Grothe's 12-yard scoring pass to Amarri Jackson.

North Carolina redshirt freshman T.J. Yates found it difficult to throw against a USF secondary led by cornerbacks Trae Williams and Mike Jenkins.

The Tar Heels forced two fumbles by Grothe, but both times Yates - harassed all day by a relentless pass rush - turned the ball back over to USF on interceptions that set up field goals by Delbert Alvarado.

The quarterback's third interception, on a play when he was flushed out of the pocket, led to Benjamin Williams' 5-yard TD run that put USF up 30-3 late in the third quarter.

Yates finished 11 of 27 for 85 yards and four interceptions. Ryan Houston scored North Carolina's only touchdown on a 5-yard run with 1:04 left.

Virginia Tech 17, Carolina 10
Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) - Xavier Adibi set up one short touchdown drive with an interception and long return, Virginia Tech stopped another drive by forcing a fumble deep in its own territory and the No. 17 Hokies won their third straight, 17-10, against North Carolina. Branden Ore gained 93 yards on 19 carries, including a 1-yard TD.

North Carolina had 306 yards, outgaining the Hokies (241) by more than 50 yards. UNC scored its second touchdown late in the final quarter and fell short on its final scoring drive on fourth down.

Carolina QB T.J. Yates was 16-for-25 for 182 yards with one interception. Half of his completions went to Hakeem Nicks, whose career-best eight receptions went for 94 yards.

Ore's touchdown with 2:17 left in the third quarter gave the Hokies a 17-3 lead and breathing room. It was set up by Adibi's interception return to the Tar Heels' 12, which came after Orion Martin forced Ryan Houston to fumble at the Hokies 5, the ball bouncing into the end zone where Kam Chancellor recovered it.

North Carolina (1-4, 0-2) closed to within a touchdown on Anthony Elzy's 1-yard TD run with 5:34 left. NC got the ball one last time after the Hokies punted.

Starting at their 14 with just over 4 minutes left, the Tar Heels moved quickly to midfield with help of Elzy's 25-yard run. On third-and-2 from the Hokies 44, Cam Martin pulled Yates down for a 5-yard loss. A fourth-down pass fell incomplete.

North Carolina coach Butch Davis said he saw signs of progress.

"We're so far away from being experienced that it's laughable as young as this football team is," he said. "Every game is a revelation. Every game we go and play, the players find out more about themselves and we find out more about them."

Carolina 33, Miami 27
Oct. 6, 2007
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Brandon Tate scored on a long end-around in a spurt of 27 points to start the game and Connor Barth kicked four field goals to help North Carolina hold off Miami 33-27, giving Butch Davis his first ACC win against a program he once built into a national champion.

Anthony Elzy ran for 95 yards and a score for the Tar Heels (2-4, 1-2 ACC), who turned in a dominating performance to take a 27-0 lead at halftime then hung on as the Hurricanes (4-2, 1-1) twice rallied to within a touchdown in the second half.

Davis had played down his first game against the Hurricanes earlier in the week and said after the game that beating Miami didn't make the victory anymore special.

"Winning the game is the most important thing for this football team," he said. "My total focus is on the University of North Carolina football team and I'm just proud of the way our kids performed."

The Tar Heels put together big plays when they needed them in the second half: a punt-forcing sack from Hilee Taylor to end a Miami drive near midfield late in the third quarter; a 49-yard catch-and-run from Tate on the ensuing possession; and two fourth-quarter field goals from Barth that kept Miami in catch-up mode.

Davis' new team got off to a fast start against Miami and Randy Shannon, who was a player and an assistant under Davis.

But Miami did everything it could to get back in the game, with Darnell Jenkins scoring on a 97-yard touchdown catch that made it 27-20 late in the third quarter and Javarris James scoring on a short run to set up an onside kick with about a minute left. But the Hurricanes couldn't overcome the halftime deficit or four interceptions from Kyle Wright.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Chris Smelley threw a career-high three touchdown passes in the first half and No. 7 South Carolina withstood a late rally to beat North Carolina 21-15.

The redshirt freshman improved to 4-0 as a starter, helping South Carolina (6-1) build a 21-3 lead through three quarters. But the Tar Heels (2-5) made things interesting late. T.J. Yates threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Greg Little on the first play of the fourth quarter, then ran 3 yards for another score to make it a six-point game with 3:03 remaining.

Yates threw three quick completions to move the Tar Heels to the South Carolina 31, but misfired on his last two throws toward the end zone, with his final pass deflected away by Kenny McKinley at about the 1.

Yates finished 22-of-42 for 285 yards against the nation's best pass defense, and Hakeem Nicks had eight receptions for 114 yards for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina had 398 total yards to South Carolina's 282, had nearly a 10-minute advantage in time of possession and stopped the Gamecocks on 12 of 13 third-down chances. But the Tar Heels couldn't overcome three interceptions -- one thrown on a trick play in the fourth by quarterback-turned-receiver Joe Dailey in the red zone.

Cory Boyd rushed 20 times for 95 yards for South Carolina. The Gamecocks clicked early in jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead. They scored on two straight possessions, with Smelley's 20-yard pass to Cook setting up his 3-yard strike to Lecorn.

South Carolina made it 21-3 at halftime when Captain Munnerlyn's 38-yard punt return in the final minutes of the half set up Smelley's scoring pass to Cook with 15 seconds left.

Wake Forest 37, Carolina 10
Oct. 27, 2007
Winston-Salem, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) - Kevin Marion returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, Josh Adams rushed for two scores and Wake Forest defeated North Carolina 37-10.

Linebacker Aaron Curry returned one of his two interceptions 77 yards for a touchdown.

Riley Skinner completed 12 of 15 passes for 133 yards to help Wake Forest (6-2, 4-1 ACC) win its sixth straight and remain behind only unbeaten Boston College in the Atlantic Division race.

Marion also returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 83 yards to set up Adams' second scoring run of the game.

Adams rushed 18 times for 82 yards with scoring runs of 6 and 14 yards.

T.J. Yates completed 26 of 33 passes for 236 yards with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Rome for the Tar Heels (2-6, 1-3), who held a 313-269 advantage in total yards.

Curry picked Yates off twice, jumping in front of a fourth-quarter pass at the Wake Forest 23 and racing down the left sideline for his second interception return for a touchdown of the season - and the Demon Deacons' fifth of the year.

Wake Forest scored the first three times it touched the ball, with Curry intercepting Yates on the first play of the game to set up Sam Swank's 23-yard field goal.

Wake Forest then went 73 yards in 12 plays, with Skinner completing 4 of 4 passes for 48 yards and Adams running 6 yards for a touchdown to make it 10-0.

After Connor Barth made it a 7-point game with a 38-yard field goal early in the second, Marion took the ensuing kickoff at the 2 and burst untouched down the right sideline and into the end zone for the second-longest kick return in school history.

Carolina 16, Maryland 13
Nov. 3, 2007
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Connor Barth kicked three field goals and T.J. Yates threw a touchdown pass to Hakeem Nicks to help North Carolina snap a two-game losing streak with a 16-13 victory over Maryland.

Freshman tailback Johnny White added a career-high 92 rushing yards for the Tar Heels (3-6, 2-3 ACC).

Nicks, the team's leading receiver, finished with eight catches for 88 yards. Yet, it was the defense that set the tone early for North Carolina. Maryland managed only 3 yards on nine plays, quarterback Chris Turner was sacked once and leading rusher Keon Lattimore was held to a single yard.

And the least penalized team in the ACC was flagged twice, nearly half its season average.

Still, Maryland had a chance down the stretch. One final drive started on its own 23-yard line with 2:49 left, and Turner completed four consecutive passes to move the Terps to North Carolina's 41. But on fourth-and-2, he was pressured by defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer and threw high toward the sideline, ending the drive with only 36 seconds remaining.

Barth connected from 23 yards to break the scoreless tie in the second quarter. Maryland's Obi Egekeze tied with a 26-yarder with about 3 1/2 minutes remaining in the first half.

Yates completed three consecutive passes - two to Brooks Foster - to give Barth another chance from 45 yards out, and his kick broke the tie at 1:01.

After the ensuing kickoff, Turner overthrew Darrius Hayward-Bey, and safety Trimaine Goddard intercepted it. Yates worked the hurry-up offense again, and his 20-yard completion led to another 45-yard field goal for Barth.

Yates' 30-yard touchdown pass to Hicks put North Carolina ahead, but Maryland found an offensive spark to make it close.

NC State 31, Carolina 27
Nov. 10, 2007
Raleigh, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) - Jamelle Eugene ran for three touchdowns, including the go-ahead 1-yarder with 1:41 left, to help North Carolina State hold off North Carolina 31-27 in a wild finish.

Eugene finished with 159 yards rushing for the Wolfpack (5-5, 3-3 ACC), who ended a three-game losing streak in the instate rivalry. Daniel Evans also threw for a score as NC State blew a 17-point first-half lead before forcing a late turnover to set up Eugene's final score.

The Tar Heels (3-7, 2-4) certainly made it interesting after a terrible start, returning two interceptions for long touchdowns and getting a 50-yard fullback pass as their only offensive score of the game. But they couldn't answer Eugene's final plunge, driving all the way to N.C. State's 7-yard line with 6.9 seconds left before coming up empty when T.J. Yates couldn't connect with Hakeem Nicks in the end zone on fourth down.

Charles Brown returned an interception 92 yards for a touchdown and Kendric Burney returned one 76 yards for a 27-24 lead in the fourth quarter for North Carolina.

But it almost turned into a morale-crunching loss. Brown's interception return in the first half gave the Tar Heels life after trailing 17-0, and Burney's grab-and-run of a bobbled pass put North Carolina ahead with 9:40 to play. Then, after North Carolina forced a three-and-out, the Tar Heels were in position to work on the clock and increase their lead.

But Willie Young managed to pressure Yates in the pocket, hitting his arm and knocking the ball into the waiting arms of DeMario Pressley. That put the Wolfpack at North Carolina's 25-yard line with 5:38 left, starting a slow march that ended when Eugene found an opening on the right side to put N.C. State ahead for good.

Georgia Tech 27, Carolina 25
Nov. 17, 2007
Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA (AP) - Travis Bell atoned for an earlier miss by kicking a 27-yard field goal with 15 seconds left as Georgia Tech overcame four lost fumbles to beat North Carolina 27-25.

The Tar Heels had taken advantage of quarterback Taylor Bennett's second fumble to go ahead 25-24 with 5:50 remaining.

Bell missed a 33-yard attempt with 2:31 to go, but the Yellow Jackets stopped North Carolina on three plays and got the ball back at their 50 after a 29-yard punt by Terrence Brown.

Tashard Choice, who had 33 carries for 142 yards, quickly moved Georgia Tech into field goal position.

Bell made a 32-yard kick, but officials had waved the play dead because North Carolina had 12 players on the field.

After the penalty, Bell was good from 27 yards.

North Carolina's Connor Barth had a 63-yard field goal attempt partially blocked on the final play.

Greg Smith had six catches for 155 yards and two touchdowns for Georgia Tech (7-4, 4-4 ACC).

Bennett's second fumble came when he was sacked by North Carolina's Da'Norris Searcy. Hilee Taylor recovered for the Tar Heels at the Georgia Tech 2, and Anthony Elzy scored from the 1 for a 25-24 lead.

Georgia Tech answered with a drive to the North Carolina 16, but Bell's try was wide right.

Freshman Greg Little made his first start at tailback and had 24 carries for 89 yards for North Carolina.

Another freshman, T.J. Yates, was 21-of-35 for 283 yards and a touchdown to set the Tar Heels record for yards passing in a season.

Carolina 20, Duke 14 (OT)
Nov. 24, 2007
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Greg Little ran for a career-high 154 yards and the go-ahead 25-yard score in overtime to lead North Carolina past Duke, 20-14.

The converted wide receiver also had a leaping 7-yard touchdown to tie it midway through the fourth quarter for the Tar Heels (4-8, 3-5 ACC), who closed their first season under coach Butch Davis with yet another win against their nearby rival.

Thaddeus Lewis threw a pair of touchdown passes to Jomar Wright for the Blue Devils (1-11, 0-8), who missed field goals on the final play of regulation and the first possession of overtime to suffer their 25th straight ACC loss.

The loss came in typical painful fashion for the Blue Devils, who took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter and had a solid defensive performance most of the way before seeing it come undone in the deciding minutes.

It ended officially when Little, who became the first Tar Heel to run for more than 100 yards this year, sprinted through the right side and raced to the right side of the end zone on the first overtime play for North Carolina.

But in some ways, it seemed over a few minutes before. Duke drove to the 23-yard line and called timeout for a field goal with a second to play in regulation, only to see Nick Maggio go wide left on the 40-yard kick as time expired. Then, after three plays netted only 2 yards, Joe Surgan - benched earlier this season for his kicking struggles - went wide left on a 40-yarder for the lead to start overtime.

For the Tar Heels, meanwhile, it was exactly what they wanted to close the year. They won for the 17th time in 18 meetings dating to 1989 and head into the offseason with much more confidence.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAS

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and also ranks as the Tar Heels' fourth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 18th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Charlie Justice (left) and Art Weiner, both members of the College Football Hall of Fame, helped lead the Tar Heels to back-to-back New Year's Day bowl games in 1949-50.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-Wold War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. His 106 career catches are the ninth-most in school history and until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Dan McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful fallawing his legendary final hame game perfarmance in 1970. McCauley rushed far 279 yards and scared five tauchdowns in a 59-42 win aver the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

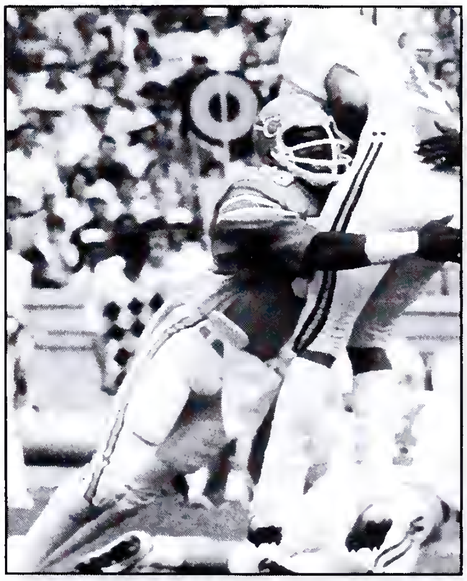
DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.



Lawrence Taylar daminated callege faotball in 1980, earning ACC player of the year hanars.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a post-graduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Marcus Jones posted seven sacks and 19 tackles for losses in 1995 en route to the ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games, including three against Georgia Tech, two at Florida State and two at Virginia. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th

GREG ELLIS, DEFENSIVE END, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Trophy as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

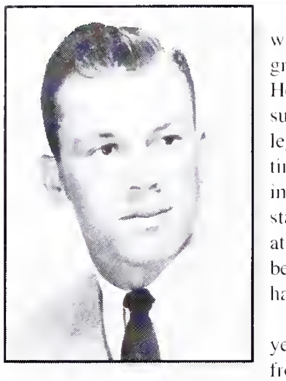
CHARLIE "CHOO-CHOO" JUSTICE



Charlie Justice was more than just a great football player. He was a bonafide superstar...a hero...a legend in his own time. He had an impact on his home state that no other athlete had ever had before or few have had since.

During his four years in Chapel Hill, from 1946 to 1949, Justice helped guide the Tar Heels to three major bowls. For one week during the 1948 season Carolina was ranked as the nation's No. 1 college football team. The Tar Heels ended that year rated third, the best finish in school history.

It is no wonder then he was held in great esteem by everyone in the state. Certainly, the time was right for a hero like Charlie Justice. World War II had just ended and people wanted to turn their attention to more pleasant things. They wanted someone to help them forget the trauma they had just suffered. So they looked for heroes and they found Charlie Justice.

In his book, They Made the Bell Tower Chime, Bob Quincy summed up Charlie Justice's college career quite succinctly. An excerpt is repeated here:

The Justice era of 1946-49 was the most exciting in Carolina's football history. Charlie was the ringleader of a circus of thrills. He set the pace, but his backing was superb.

The Tar Heels operated from the single wing with the kinds of variations that at times resembled the Harlem Globetrotters' pre-game ball-handling act. The four seasons netted 32 victories, seven losses and two deadlocks, plus three major bowl appearances.

The 170-pound Justice was one of the nation's most sought-after players when he enrolled at Carolina. Some called him the hottest property in the history of football at that time. He had been a standout at Asheville's Lee Edwards High, leading the Maroons to two unbeaten seasons. He was All-Southern two years at Asheville, and as a member of the Shrine Bowl football team in 1942 he scored three touchdowns against South Carolina, a record that still stands.

The Navy became home for Charlie during the war years, and he became a phantom on a pro-studded Bainbridge Navy Squad. After two years of romping for Bainbridge against opponents across the country, he was a target for pro offers from the Philadelphia Eagles and Washington.

Charlie wanted an education, and scouts stayed in pursuit. He chose Chapel Hill after seriously considering South Carolina and Duke. An off-hand remark by Snavely—"I hope he comes out for football"—became a classic understatement.

In the Virginia game his freshman year he gained 170 yards in 17 carries with runs of 18, 40, and 56 yards. He had seen little practice because of a leg injury, but the Cavaliers were certain he carried a spare appendage.

Choo Choo (he acquired the name at Bainbridge when a gob remarked, "He runs along just like a choo choo train.") was excitement. He was all eagerness on the sidelines and all business when he moved into the tailback slot. He thrived on duty, and he was a master of the quick kick, a devastating rusher, a good passer, and a fake artist who could charm a cobra.

Jack Fitch, a thick-legged back who occasionally shared duty with Justice when not playing on the wing, sized up Charlie's style by noting, "Justice has the ability to be running at full speed, stop suddenly, and then be back at full speed almost instantly. He was never regarded as fast in terms of a track man. He had a change of pace that couldn't be matched, and he knew how to follow blockers as well as any back I've ever watched."

The Snavely system called for a spinning fullback, fakes and counter fakes, fullback pass plays and reverses. It was a dashing brand of football made more exciting by players' ability and maturity to accept Snavely's often complicated maneuvers.

A book, "Choo Choo", documents the career of Charlie Justice. He was a folk hero and deserved the special treatment. The great Benny Goodman and the late Johnny Long recorded the Campbell-Beebe song, "All The Way Choo Choo." It sold by the thousands.

Typical of Justice was the Georgia game of 1948. He scored three times against the Bulldogs in a 21-14 triumph, the climax being an 84-yard punt return. At mid-way point that season, the Tar Heels were ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Justice erased more records than a company of auditors during his four years at UNC. He scored 234 points and passed or ran for 64 touchdowns. As a ball carrier he accumulated 2,634 yards.

His total offense record of 4,883 yards lasted for 45 years until quarterback Jason Stanicek broke the mark in 1994. Justice, graciously, was on hand to congratulate Stanicek.

Justice seemed to peak when the traditional games were being played. He led the Tar Heels to four straight wins over Duke. He was an All-America mention as a freshman and made many of the major teams as a junior and as a senior. He was runnerup for the Heisman Trophy to Doak Walker of SMU in 1949.

Charlie's finest moment came in the College All-Star Game of 1950 at Chicago's Soldier Field. He was voted the MVP of the game for good reason. The All-Stars walloped the Philadelphia Eagles, led by Steve Van Buren, 17-7. Justice gained 133 yards individually, or 48 more than the Eagles posted as a team. He set up a touchdown on a 60-yard pass from Eddie LeBaron.

Justice passed away in Cherryville on October 17, 2003. He was 79. The next day, Carolina played Arizona State at Kenan Stadium and the number 22 was painted at the 22-yard line in Justice's honor.

A statue of legendary Tar Heel Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice was dedicated in 2004.

Twenty-six former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been placed on the facade of Kenan Stadium's upper deck. The men honored include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

Kelvin Bryant was one of eight Tar Heels selected to the ACC's Top 50 team in 2002.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under Head Coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON MCCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's NCAA-record 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and third in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game — a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

Harris Barton was an excellent student-athlete at Carolina from 1983-86. He was a first-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers and was chosed for a post-graduate by the NFL.

JULIUS PEPPERS, #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular-season title.

KELVIN BRYANT, #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON, #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

BRIAN BLADOS, #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

IRV HOLDASH, #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY, #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE, #20

The only ACC player and one of only four players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN, #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

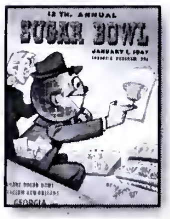
BOWL GAME RECAPS

1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947



The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

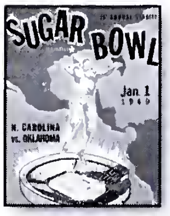
1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949



The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

Annual COTTON BOWL
Classic

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling i n the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

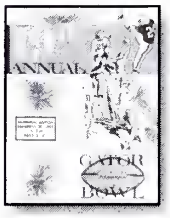
1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963



It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

Third Annual Peach Bowl

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

GATOR BOWL

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

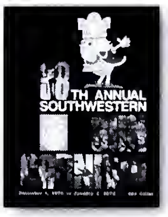
1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972



Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl

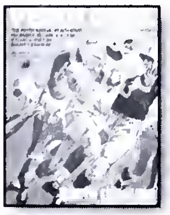
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976



Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

LIBERTY BOWL
NORTH CAROLINA VS. NEBRASKA

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

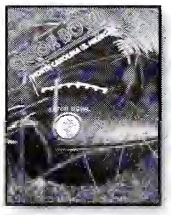
December 28, 1979



Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

Gator Bowl
Arkansas vs North Carolina

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball hack to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

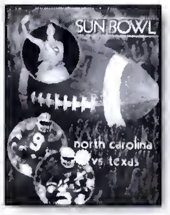
1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982



North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

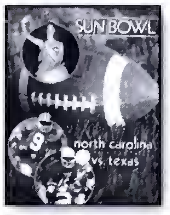
December 30, 1983



Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

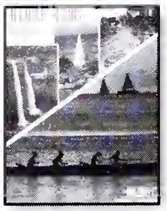
1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986



Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

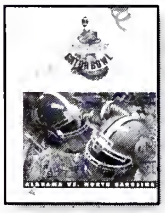
1993 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Alabama 24, Carolina 10
December 31, 1993



Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

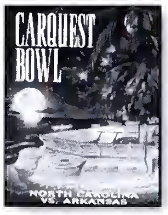
1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995



Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl.

Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

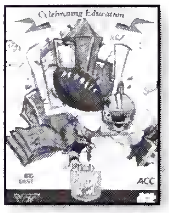
BOWL GAME RECAPS

1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998



Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

The Season's FIRST Bowl
DECEMBER 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

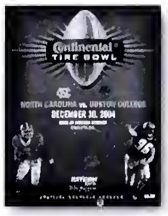
2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004



Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

NORTH CAROLINA BOWL GAME HISTORY

TOYOTA GATOR BOWL
Champion
VIRGINIA TECH
CHAMPION

North Carolina has played in 25 postseason bowl games, including nine in the last 13 years heading into the 2006 season. The Tar Heels are 12-13 all-time in bowl games and are 6-3 since 1990.

UNC is second behind Clemson in bowl appearances among schools that were charter members of the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the Tar Heels have the most appearances of any charter school since the league was formed in 1953.

Beginning with the Sugar Bowl in 1947, Carolina has played in 11 different bowl games. The Tar Heels are 5-2 in the Gator Bowl, 2-2 in the Sun, 1-0 in the Bluebonnet, 1-0 in the Carquest, 1-0 in the Continental Tire, 2-3 in the Peach, 0-1 in the Cotton, 0-1 in the Liberty, 0-1 in the Aloha and 0-2 in the Sugar.

DENOTES BOWL GAME

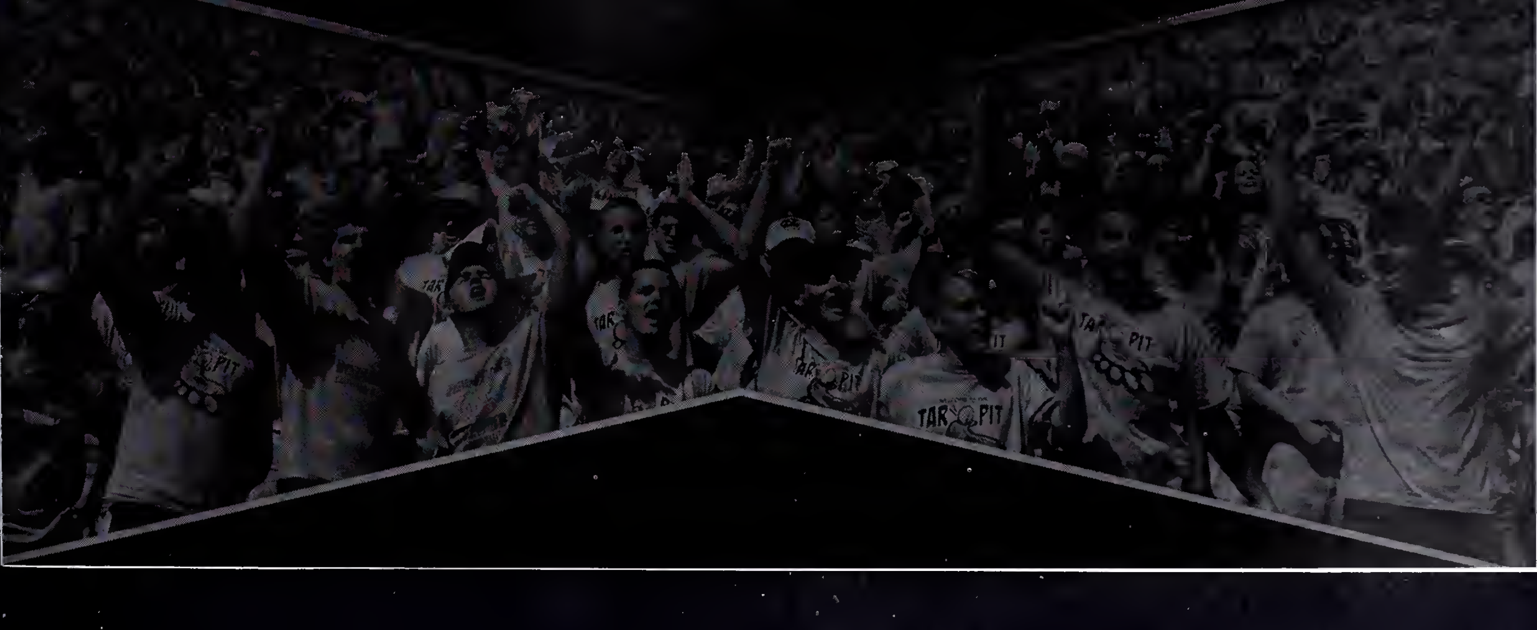
MEDIA INFORMATION



ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Director of Football Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director John Martin. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Martin. Best's office is located on the second floor of the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium. The main entrance is on the Skipper Bowles Drive side of the building.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials at Carolina home football games should be made in writing on station/newspaper/magazine letterhead to Associate A.D. for Communications Steve Kirschner. The mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515. Requests may be sent via fax (919-962-0612) or e-mail (stevekirschner@unc.edu), but all requests should be sent so they reach the Athletic Communications Office at least one week prior to the game.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 5 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office. Those credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at the ticket window of Kenan Fieldhouse (old fieldhouse, East endzone). Will Call opens three hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the third quarter.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. We ask, for the safety of others, that equipment not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Steve Kirschner. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the East Drive Deck at the corner of East and Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players will head directly to the interview area in the player's lounge on the second floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field Communications representative.

Head coach Butch Davis will conduct a short interview with Woody Durham for the Tar Heel Sports Network's live broadcast while the players are in the interview area. Davis will begin his postgame press conference in the Hall of Honor, approximately 15 minutes after the players have begun their interview period.

After night games, Davis and the players will be available simultaneously due to deadline demands. Quotes will be gathered from both Davis and several players for distribution in the press box. Away game procedures will vary, depending on available facilities.

Please note: Davis is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network. After night games, great care will be taken to get Davis to the general media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to Davis as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box is wireless. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the internet by simply turning on their computers in the press box. Media also have access to the internet via ethernet jacks installed throughout the press box at Kenan Stadium.

PHONES

The Department of Athletics furnishes approximately 12 telephones along press row for media to file stories. All long distance calls must be by credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Anyone desiring a private phone should contact Bell South at least two weeks prior to the game. If you are calling from within the 919 area code, dial 780-2800. However, if you are calling from outside the 919 area code, then you must dial 1-800-919-2800.

Phone lines and ethernet access are available for use by photographers only in the main press area. UNC Director of Photography Jeffrey Camarati coordinates the photographer's work area.

Note: The on-campus building number for the press box at Kenan Stadium, for which you will be asked, is #519. List Steve Kirschner as the stadium contact for placing the phone.

Fax machines are available for media use. Media should make a representative of the Athletic Communications Office aware of their fax needs prior to the end of the game.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH BUTCH DAVIS

Butch Davis will meet with the media at 11:30 a.m. each Monday prior to a game. Davis will meet with the print and TV media for approximately 30 minutes. Out-of-town media may access the print portion of the press conference by phone. You can listen and ask questions, time permitting, by using this service. Contact Kevin Best for the phone number.

Davis is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number. Davis will also be available via teleconference for 15 minutes on Sundays (day after games only) at 5 p.m. Contact Best for the number.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Kevin Best or John Martin. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted at the conclusion of practice at the practice field or Football Center. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Telephone interviews are conducted at the player's convenience. Usually they are handled by players returning calls immediately after practice (between approximately 6 and 7 p.m.). No home numbers for players will be given out and players have been told not to accept calls from anyone asking football-related questions.

Please do not show up and wait for players unannounced on campus, at players' housing or the Football Center. The players have been instructed to politely decline the request and refer the person to the Note: Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Please wait at the tunnel (field side) leading into the lockerroom at the Kenan Football Center. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media after practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

TarHeelBlue.com, the official website for University of North Carolina athletics, is the 24-hour-a-day home for breaking news, in-depth features and colorful and informative commentary on the Tar Heels. TarHeelBlue.com brings the die-hard UNC fan close to all the action with exclusive interviews and photos of Carolina athletes and coaches, unrivaled interactive game-day coverage and a vast archive of historical and biographical information. If it's going on in the world of Carolina athletics, you can find it on TarHeelBlue.com, the online home of the Tar Heels.

BUTCHDAVIS.COM

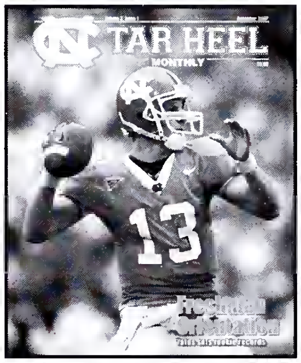
Butch Davis

The University of North Carolina has launched a new portal on TarHeelBlue.com, called "Inside the Huddle With Butch Davis," which contains exclusive video commentary from the head football coach, a coach's video playbook feature, the Butch Davis TV show and video features of players, coaches and personalities within the Carolina football program. It can be reached by going to www.ButchDavis.com. The site, which is free to all users, also contains video clips from Davis' press conference and post-practice interviews, and highlight packages from each game this season. Each week, Davis will provide exclusive commentary to Inside the Huddle and will break down plays from the previous game as part of the video playbook. TarHeelBlue.com, the official website of the University of North Carolina athletic department, was the No. 1 website in page views in the CSTV network (more than 250 sites) in 2007.

TAR HEEL NEWSFLASH

The Tar Heel NewsFlash delivers up to the minute information to people who want to know about Carolina athletics. Subscribers to the Tar Heel News Flash email get UNC sports news updates, and find out about last-minute ticket opportunities, game schedules and special ticket and merchandise offers. The Tar Heel News Flash is brought to you by the Carolina Athletic Department and is absolutely free. To subscribe, go to TarHeelBlue.com and click on the Tar Heel News Flash button.

TAR HEEL MONTHLY



Tar Heel Monthly is the premier magazine devoted to covering University of North Carolina athletics. Featuring insights from your favorite Carolina personalities like Lee Pace, Adam Lucas, and Jones Angell, the magazine is available on a complimentary basis to Rams Club members and on a subscription basis to non-members. Every glossy, full-color issue includes in-depth player and coach features you won't read anywhere else, insightful analysis, and an informative mix of award-winning columnists.

One-year subscriptions (12 issues, including the Tar Heel of the Year issue and the football and basketball previews) are available to non-Rams Club members by sending a check or money order for $36 to Tar Heel Monthly, 503 Meadowmont Ln., Chapel Hill, NC 27517, by calling 919-969-8140, or by subscribing online at www.tarheelmonthly.com. A story from each issue is also reprinted at TarHeelBlue.com. Tar Heel Monthly is published by Tobacco Road Media, Inc. The executive publisher is Adam Lucas, who has closely followed University of North Carolina sports for over 25 years. He is also a regular columnist for TarHeelBlue.com.

EXTRA POINTS

Extra Points, written and published by Carolina alumnus Lee Pace (AB Journalism, 1979), enters its 18th season offering an informative and unique view of Tar Heel football. The newsletter will appear at least two times a week throughout the football season at TarHeelBlue.com as well as other times where applicable--in particular before and after a bowl game, national signing day in early February and spring practice. Pace also serves as the sideline reporter on the Tar Heel Sports Network.

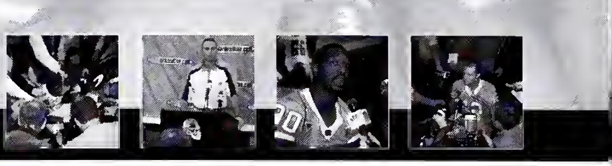
54-WEST, 15-501 SOUTH FROM RALEIGH, DURHAM

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/ Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the Dogwood Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.



The Tar Heels Sports Network On Air Talent (l-r):
Lee Pace, Woody Durham, Jones Angell and Rick Steinbacher

Learfield Communications begins its 10th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams, primarily football and basketball.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Marketing in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 40 other schools under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri, South Carolina and Wisconsin.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sobba, the eight-year General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Marketing.

"I have worked on various college campuses for more than 20 years," adds Sobba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Tar Heel Sports Marketing is in its 14th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Marketing is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSM brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio on Wednesday night for "Butch Davis Live" and Monday for "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball," and on "Tar Heel Football Review Show" in the Triangle. When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home.

Woody Durham, beginning his 38th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels," and Head Coach Butch Davis give fans an opportunity to phone in and talk with the Coach every Wednesday evening during the football season on the "Butch Davis Live" call in show.

Durham also will visit with Coach Davis on "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring conversations with the Tar Heels' Head Coach. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," hosted by Durham, is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

"The Voice of the Tar Heels"
38th year at North Carolina

A 2005 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee, Woody Durham enters his 38th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels" this fall.

Since September 1971, Durham has broadcast more than 1,600 Carolina football and basketball games, and the Tar Heels have won more than 72 percent of those games.

A native of Mebane, N.C., Durham grew up in Albemarle, N.C., where he began his broadcasting career with WZKY Radio at age 16. He graduated from UNC in 1963 with an AB degree in Radio, Television and Motion Pictures, and spent 19 years as a TV sportscaster with stints in Greensboro and Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill.

In 1981, Durham joined Tar Heel Sports Marketing, which produces the Tar Heel Sports Network, on a full-time basis, and in 1984, he permanently moved his family to Chapel Hill. He and his wife of 45 years, Jean, are the parents of two sons. Wes, 41, Georgia's Sportscaster of the Year, is in his 14th year handling play-by-play duties at Georgia Tech, and his fifth year handling the play-by-play duties for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons. Taylor, 35, is a network recruitment manager with International Sports Properties in Winston-Salem. Woody and Jean have nine-year-old twin grandchildren, Emily and Will.

Durham has been named North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year on 12 different occasions, most recently in 2005. In fact, Woody and Wes were both honored by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association in Salisbury on May 1, 2006. Wes has been chosen the Georgia Sportscaster of the Year five times, including most recently in April of 2008.

In 1993, Woody was inducted into the Stanly County Sports Hall of Fame. In 1994, he received the Priceless Gem Award from the UNC Department of Athletics. The following year, the General Alumni Association presented him with its Distinguished Service Medal. In November 2000, the UNC Board of Trustees honored him with the William R. Davie Award. During the 2002 ACC Basketball Tournament, he received the Marvin "Skeeter" Francis Award for special services to the ACC. In 2003, Durham was honored by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association, along with former Carolina football coach Bill Dooley, with the Russell Blunt Legends Award for being a true legend in athletics.

Durham was inducted into the North Carolina Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 2004, honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the North Carolina broadcast industry. He also has received the Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster Award from the All-American Football Association (June, 2005).

In addition to his play-by-play duties, Durham also visits with Coach Butch Davis on "Inside Carolina Football," a daily five-minute radio program. He is with Coach Davis every Wednesday evening during the football season for "Butch Davis Live," a radio call-in show which originates from Top Of The Hill restaurant in downtown Chapel Hill. He also hosts "Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," a weekly half-hour TV show on Fox Sports South.

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

OLD WELL WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team travels from the team hotel and is dropped off in the center of campus at the Old Well, one of the University's most recognized landmarks. From there, the Tar Heels walk from the Old Well through the main quad of campus and into the Kenan Football Center. The Old Well Walk, which began in 2001, is packed each Saturday with thousands of cheering fans, hoping to catch a glimpse of their favorite player or coach. The Old Well Walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
